Projected Flight From Atlantic Seaboard.

RETURN VOYAGE

Lakehurst, N. J., October 25.—(AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the German dirigible Graf Zeppelin, announced at 10:30 o'clock tonight that the flight of the Zeppelin to St. Louis and Chicago would be postponed until after weather reports were received tomorrow morning.

An 18-mile cross-hanger wind influenced Dr. Eckener's decision he said. The wind had been expected to subside, but the commander said he did not expect conditions would improve tonight.

"When the weather maps are available tomorrow morning," he said, "we will know better when we may start west. I am anxious to take the trip over America's midwest."

The Zeppelin's passengers, who had been summoned earlier in the evening for a takeoff tonight, returned to their hotel at Toms River when Dr. Eckener said the trip would be delayed again.

Captain Ernst Lehmann, chief pilot of the aircraft, said the flight would be delayed for 24 hours at least and that Dr. Eckener would decide tomorrow whether plans for the mid-west cruise would be definitely abandoned.

When the Zeppelin left Germany, Captain Lehmann said, it was the intention of her commander to stay in America not more than 14 days. If the start of the return flight is delayed beyond that time, it is feared weather conditions in Europe may be unfavorable.

If the cruise over America's middle west is undertaken, the pilot said, it is not likely that a definite course will be laid out before the start.

The course to be followed, he explained, will depend entirely upon weather conditions encountered en route. The Zeppelin may be headed directly toward Chicago over a northerly route, or it may follow the old air mail across the south, over Louisiana.

FEDERAL COTTON ESTIMATE IS HIT

Eugene Talmadge Says
Government Figures
Show 219,000 More Bales
Than State Will Produce

Recent estimates of the government cotton bureau placing the Georgia cotton crop for 1928 at 1,060,000 bales is greater by 219,000 bales than a special estimate made Thursday by Eugene Talmadge, commissioner of agriculture of Georgia, based on 1,423 sworn reports obtained in all sections of Georgia. If the federal bureau has made this bad a mistake in all the other cotton states' the estimate for the entire crop will be in error by an enormous figure, according to the commissioner.

Commissioner Talmadge declared that his "suspicions were aroused" when he read the estimate of the bureau.

Democrats Brought Prosperity to U. S., Raskob Declares

In First Address of Campaign Chairman Talks to Business Men of Whole Country.

RIDICULES CLAIM
OF G. O. P. LEADERS

Shows Acts Under Wilson Responsible for Prosperous Season; No Graft Found in Record.

New York, October 25.—(United News.)—An appeal for business men of the nation to support Governor Alfred E. Smith and the democratic ticket was made tonight by John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee and himself one of the country's leading industrialists. The speech was broadcast over a nation-wide radio hookup.

Raskob, who resigned as chairman of the finance committee of General Motors to take his first part in politics as director of the democratic campaign, spoke in concise, businesslike terms, very much as one business man addressing other men of similar interests. He attacked the republican claims of prosperity, asserted that democrats have contributed largely to national stability, claimed that the democratic policy on tariff and immigration was fully as "protective" as the republican policy, defied the republicans to show anything helpful they had done for agriculture and concluded with a plea for modification of the prohibition laws as Governor Smith has suggested and a eulogy of the democratic candidate.

Why He Is For Smith.

"I have aligned myself," Raskob said, "with Governor Smith. He never broke a promise, evaded a responsibility, or dodged an issue in his life. Sharp practice is an abomination to him. He is master of the art of political government under the forms prescribed in our constitution. He would not advance an illusory platform. He tries to secure support and advice. He is a constructive thinker and a man of action. He gets results."

The democrats were in no small way responsible for the present prosperity of the country. The first important act of the democrats was the federal reserve law, passed over violent republican opposition. Only three republican senators from states east of the Mississippi river voted for the law.

"This law was the financial basis of our huge war activities and is indispensable to modern business. It has done more to equalize and stabilize prosperity than any other government act."

WILLIAM A. WHITE, EDITOR IN ATLANTA, ON WAY TO AUGUSTA

William Allen White, editor and publisher of the Emporia, Kan., Gazette passed through Atlanta Thursday night en route to Augusta, Ga., where he is to deliver an address to-night in behalf of the candidacy of Herbert Hoover, republican nominee for president.

The Kansas publisher stopped in Atlanta for a few hours. He will go to Savannah, Ga., from Augusta to deliver another address in behalf of the Hoover ticket.

The Augusta address will be the first of several Mr. White will deliver in the south before the general election on November 6.

CROSSCOUNTRY RECORD FALLS TO NEW PLANE

Yankee Doodle Breaks
Time Mark From New York to Pacific Coast by an Hour.

FOURTH ATTEMPT IS SUCCESSFUL

Plane Arrives at Los Angeles After Being Out of Touch for Many Hours.

Mines Field, Los Angeles, Calif., October 25.—(AP)—Setting a new record for a trans-continental non-stop airplane flight from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific, the monoplane Yankee Doodle arrived here at 2:12 p. m. today from Roosevelt field, N. Y.

The official time of the flight as announced, was 24 hours and 51 minutes. The best previous time for the westward flight was 26 hours and 50 minutes, made in 1923, by Lieutenants John MacReady and Oakley Kelly.

The Yankee Doodle hopped off at Roosevelt field at 4:16:35 p. m. eastern standard time yesterday. The little cigar-shaped, white winged plane, was loaded with 530 gallons of gasoline, just about enough for a 24-hour flight, and a check began shortly after landing to determine how much of the fuel was left.

The westward flight covered approximately the course flown over by Colonel Arthur Goebel when he piloted his plane to a new west-east non-stop transcontinental record of 18 hours and 55 minutes several weeks ago. This course lay over McKeesport, Pa., Columbus, Ohio, Indianapolis, Terre Haute, Ind., Wichita, Kansas, Albuquerque, N. M., and through the San Bernardino pass into southern California.

This was the fourth time Tucker had sent his plane into a coast to coast grind. The first west to east attempt was unsuccessful but on the second attempt Goebel piloted the machine through to the record. A bag of apples and two cans of water were taken along as nourishment for the fliers.

Much anxiety was felt for the plane during the night when Coolidge was in the cockpit, the only definite word of it being received from Albuquerque where it was sighted at 9:10 a. m. mountain time.

About 150 persons were on hand at Mines field when the plane arrived.

KING OF RUMANIA HONORED BY MASS ON 7TH BIRTHDAY

Bucharest, Rumania, October 25.—(AP)—Michael, young king of Rumania, celebrated his seventh birthday today with vast pomp and ceremony.

A solemn high mass was sung in his honor at the national cathedral, among those attending being the entire royal family, members of the cabinet, the regency, the council and parliament. Services on a smaller scale were held throughout Rumania.

Michael, or Mihail, as he is called in Rumania, reviewed a vast parade of brilliantly accoutred troops, who saluted him as his commander-in-chief, for all that he is little more than a baby.

SENATOR HEFLIN DECLARES SMITH IS PARTY BOLTER

Denouncing Governor Al Smith, of New York, as a candidate who obtained the democratic nomination "by fraud and deception" and declaring that the Catholics of America are determined "to dominate or destroy the democratic party," United States Senator J. T. Hefflin, of Alabama, delivered an anti-Smith speech at the auditorium Thursday night before a crowd that filled that building almost to capacity.

Senator Hefflin declared that he is not conducting any "whispering campaign" against the democratic nominee and said he could state out in the open that he would "never vote for a Roman Catholic for the presidency of the United States." He also declared that Smith had "bolted the democratic party" when he sent a "wet telegram" to the Houston convention and said he had just as soon "put a red fox in charge of a poultry yard as to put Smith in charge of the prohibition laws."

Suffers From Cold.

Suffering from a severe cold Senator Hefflin could hardly speak above a whisper at the beginning of his speech but his voice cleared up during the address and he was able to talk for more than two hours on various phases of the democratic situation in the south.

"Before I would vote for a Roman Catholic that church must declare in the open that it favors separation of church and state; it must declare against any union of church and state; it must declare in favor of any person worshiping according to the dictates of his conscience; it must recognize as valid the marriage of a Protestant church and must favor the free reading of the Bible by everybody," he said.

The Alabama senator referred to an editorial printed in The Constitution Thursday morning in which reference was made to the senator's criticism of Herbert Hoover's anti-segregation order.

"I've at least got to the point

Governor Regrets His Inability To Include Atlanta in Tour.

BY HELEN AND OLIVE PARISH.
(Former Members of The Constitution Local Staff.)

On Board the Al Smith Special, October 25.—Governor Al Smith is disappointed that he could not include a few rounds of Atlanta golf in his recent political tour of the southeast, we were told tonight by Joseph E. Collier, chief of the personal staff, on board the Al Smith special, en route from Hartford to New York, Thursday night.

The governor himself confessed that his golf has suffered since he began campaigning. "Not that I am a good player," he said as the light from thousands of "red fire" torches burst upon us, "but I enjoy the game, and it can't be played abroad trains."

The news of campaigning are not too severe, however, as Governor Smith told us, "I have been campaigning since September 16, and can honestly say that during that time I have neither lost weight nor my appetite. Despite the hardship imposed upon a candidate running for president, I feel as well today as I ever have in my life. ### French Physician-Murderer Escapes From Dry Guillotine

Is Third To Penetrate Dread Devil's Island Jungle

Caracas, Venezuela, October 25.—(United News.)—The thing which more than 500 hardened criminals attempt every year—the almost impossible escape from Devil's Island colony—apparently has been accomplished again and this time by one of the most notorious French convicts.

Dr. Pierre Bougrat, sentenced for life to the penal colony in French Guiana for the brutal and sensational murder of a pottery company colleague, has reached Irapa, a small settlement on the Gulf of Paria, according to word received here. He was reported officially in Paris to have disappeared from the penal colony on September 3, last.

Two other prisoners were with Dr. Bougrat when he escaped into the wilderness of jungle which surrounds the penal colony. It was not known whether they, too, reached safety or died in the attempt as many others have done.

The jungle which spreads for miles behind the coastal colony popularly known as Devil's Island virtually is impenetrable and many convicts who succeed in eluding guards are forced to return to the colony by hunger and fear of the vast tropical wilderness.

Dr. Bougrat, once a prominent Marseille physician, was charged with murder when the body of his victim was found almost by accident.

Body Found in Closet.

The house of the doctor's victim, Jacques Rumbec, the collector, was found months after the crime concealed in a closet in the office of Bougrat. The door to the closet had been sealed and papered over.

It had been known that Rumbec called on Dr. Bougrat shortly before he disappeared and that he had a large sum of money in his possession at the time.

While the prosecution charged that Dr. Bougrat had killed the collector for the money, the defense contended that Rumbec had died while being treated by the physician and that Dr. Bougrat had concealed the body for

Atlanta's Stray Dogs Traced to Emory Lab

STORM IS RAISED ON VIVISECTION OF DOGS

What becomes of our missing girls long has been the subject of study and discussion. Now comes Mrs. H. S. Wagner, president of the Atlanta branch of the Anti-Vivisection society, who propounds the question, "What becomes of our missing dogs?" And along with the question, Mrs. Wagner offers an answer.

Mrs. Wagner, with Captain J. E. Benson, of the Atlanta Humane society, Thursday visited the laboratory at Emory university, where she said she found scores of dogs, many of them evidently family or children's pets and many others homeless and aimless and undoubtedly useless dogs, but dumb animals, nevertheless. Emory officials told her, Mrs. Wagner said, that the dogs were to be vivisectioned for scientific purposes.

Immediately Mrs. Wagner declared war.

Drawn up in battle formation on one side were the combined forces of the Atlanta branch of the Anti-Vivisection society and the Humane society, while in opposite trenches held forth officials of the Emory medical school.

Attackers Lay Down Barrage.

The attacking forces fired the first barrage, charging that Emory sought and obtained the dogs by devious methods for the purpose of vivisection and experimenting on them in medical and biological classes. Marshalling the armies of the attackers were Captain Benson and Mrs. Wagner. In the absence of higher ranking generals, the forces of Emory carried on under the guidance of Miss Anne Thurman, secretary to the dean of the medical school.

Captain Benson and Mrs. Wagner charge that Emory maintains a dog wagon, such as used by the city dogcatcher, who, it develops, does not function the year round, but merely in the spring and early summer months which are known as the "stray dog season." The captain and Mrs. Wagner assert that they have reason to believe that the school authorities collect said dogs with somewhat reckless

Former W. C. T. U. Officer Hits Party Dodgers, Intolerant Enemies of Smith in Address

Mrs. Betty Cobb Delivers Most Elloquent Speech Ever Heard in Lamar County.

BY MRS. E. A. FISH.

Barnesville, Ga., October 23.—(Special.)—Mrs. Betty Cobb, of Carrollton, U. and local advisor for this organization, first woman lawyer in Georgia, and trustee of Georgia State College for Women, spoke to the women voters of Lamar county in behalf of the democratic nominees Thursday afternoon in one of the most thrilling and brilliant addresses ever heard in the county.

Mrs. Edgar Alexander was to have spoken, but was ill and could not be present. A permanent organization was perfected in the county during the meeting. Mrs. Harry Kennedy, wife of the legislator of the county, was elected chairman, and Mrs. Emmett Coleman, wife of the mayor, was elected secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Cobb was introduced by Mrs. John Quinn, sister of Senator William J. Harris. Mrs. Cobb resigned from the W. C. T. U. when it denounced the democratic party, and her address this afternoon was on "Why I Am a Democrat."

do not want to be charged with ingratitude let them not forget this one thing.

Motto of Toleration.

"With reference to the 18th amendment, it seems to me that the W. C. T. U. and the church women of Georgia are making a fetish of the 18th amendment, to which they are sacrificing the good and honest virtues of loyalty, honesty, temperance and toleration."

"I am at a loss to understand how they can forsake the party which in its platform declared that it would make an honest effort to enforce the 18th amendment, and all laws passed in pursuance thereof, and upon which platform our nominees squarely stand; and who have said so in a speech, the courage and candor of which warmed the heart of democracy as it has not been warmed since the silver tongue of Woodrow Wilson was still, and so into a party whose enforcement of the 18th amendment has been such a farce that it has made of us and one prohibition the laughing stock of the nations. They must know that the 18th amendment does not rest in the hands of the president, but in the hands of congress."

Why Smith Was Chosen.
"Having told you why I am a democrat, I would like to tell you why I think democracy chose wisely when Alfred E. Smith was made the standard bearer of our great party. I cannot tell you better than to quote the words of a woman of great refinement, high ideals, and profound judgment, who is a personal friend of Alfred E. Smith. Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt says, 'I favor Governor Alfred E. Smith because of his astonishing knowledge of government, his power of clear, straight thinking, his courage, and unwavering honesty, but above all, because he has a human heart and does not consider that success in life of either an individual or a nation can be measured by a bank balance or treasury credit.'"

"That Mrs. Roosevelt is right in saying that he has a human heart is proven by his record. It is doubtful if any man in America, who has been among its members graft and political corruption, but be it to its eternal credit that Boss Tweed, the greatest corruptionist, had his punishment, while Big Bill Thompson and Vane still go uncondemned."

"And let us not forget that in the time of stress when our southern lay prostrate and bleeding, that the traditional friend of the south found no place to lay its head but on the bosom of Tammany Hall. Its southern women

"This, then, is the man for whom we are told the women of the south will not vote. In the name of all that is good and holy, why should we vote for such a man? They will have to give me a reason better than one yet assigned before I will forsake my party, which is headed by such a man, with such a heart, and by the first southern man who has been named the vice presidential nominee of this party is Senator Joe T. Robinson, of Arkansas, is not only our neighbor, but is one of our very own. The son of a Confederate veteran, whose father fought side by side with our own in the Confederate army."

ESCAPED TRUSTY FROM STATE FARM TAKEN IN CHICAGO

Milledgeville, Ga., October 23.—News has been received here that Ramon Strubling, escaped prisoner from the Georgia state farm, had been apprehended in Chicago. Strubling, who was sent up from Fulton county on a bad check charge, had been made a trusty about the camp and early in August made his escape.

He took advantage of the absence of Warden T. M. Burke, and going to the home of the official, took his car on the pretense of carrying it into town to a garage to have some work done on it. When he failed to return, efforts were made to locate him and the car. The car was found in Macon where he had abandoned it, but he made good his escape.

Superintendent B. H. Dunaway, of the prison farm, had for a long time where he will take charge of the fugitive and bring him back to prison here.

EXUM WILL JUMP IN NEW PARACHUTE ON MACON FIELD

Macon, Ga., October 23.—(Special.) Jesse Exum, an Atlanta parachute jumper, who thrilled several thousands people last Sunday at Candlefield, has been engaged by Doug Davis, well-known commercial pilot of Atlanta, to make a jump on the new field at Macon Sunday afternoon.

The new field is being opened by Mr. Davis and there will be several planes there to take part in a series of stunts along with the parachute attraction. Exum will use his new chute which was designed by himself and which he will manufacture for commercial use.

Exum claims that the new design does not oscillate half as much as his old chute for it is more flat on top, and the jumper is seven feet further from it than in the old design.

EXTRA SESSION ASKED TO CONSIDER HIGHWAYS

Calhoun Civitan Club Petitions Hardman To Act.

Calhoun, Ga., October 23.—(Special.)—Governor Hardman was called upon to call an extraordinary session of the legislature "for the sole purpose of considering highway legislation" looking to a solution of the present road problem in the state, in a petition of the Calhoun Civitan club made public today.

The petition urges that the people of the state "be given the opportunity to vote on a bond issue of sufficient size to complete our main highway system promptly and reimburse individual counties for funds previously furnished state aid projects."

The text of the petition follows: "Hon. L. G. Hardman, Governor, Atlanta, Ga.

"Dear Sir: "Believing that you, like we, are sincerely interested in the development and progress of our state, we respectfully submit this communication."

"At the last regular meeting of the Calhoun Civitan club, our members, by unanimous vote, went on record as advocating the following steps toward the solution of our present highway problems: "First, that the governor call an extraordinary session of the legislature, as soon as practical, for the sole purpose of considering highway legislation; that this legislation should be such as to permit of a complete revision of our present system of construction, a complete reorganization of the personnel of the present highway department and the entire elimination of politics from our highway body and its operation."

"Second, that, in the event such measures are passed, the state highway department be reorganized as to personnel on the basis of ability and qualifications and the entire elimination of politics. We feel that the head of our highway department should be a man who is nationally known as a highly capable road builder and executive and we favor the going out of our state and securing the services of the very best man, available for this purpose."

"Third, that the people of our state then be given the opportunity to vote on a bond issue of sufficient size to complete our main highway system promptly and reimburse individual counties for funds previously furnished state aid projects."

"For your information, we have the personal assurance from our present senator, from this district, of his hearty support of this program and we feel that such a program would be the sincere approval of the loyal citizens of our state who want to see old Georgia once more 'The Empire State of the South' in fact as well as name."

DOZIER ACCEPTS PLACE AS GENERAL OF U. C. V. BRIGADE

General J. S. Dozier, Atlanta veteran who was elected brigadier general in command of the north Georgia brigade, U. C. V., at a recent reunion in Griffin Thursday officially announced his acceptance of the honor.

General Dozier has spent nearly all his life in military service. During the war between the states he served in the Richmond Hussars, of Cobb's Legion. Subsequently he served on several governors' staffs, the last one being that of Governor Hoke Smith. He was captain in the Horse Guards for a number of years and was major of cavalry.

KANSAS CITY JURY INDICTS 10 AFTER BOMBING INQUIRY

Kansas City, October 23.—(AP)—Frank J. Peterson, secretary of the Kansas City Building Trade council, and nine others were indicted today by the Jackson county grand jury which for several weeks has been investigating bombing and other acts of violence here.

Besides Peterson, six labor leaders and men connected with the cleaning and dyeing trade were indicted. They are Larry O'Hare, William Faust, Aaron Schultz, Samuel Malden, John Duechler and Edwin Watson. The indictments against the labor leaders were based on two alleged assaults on persons who were said to have refused demands to remove non-union men from contracts, and on two recent explosions alleged to have grown out of labor troubles.

Peterson was named in two indictments, one charging him with assault with intent to kill in connection with the beating of F. A. Taylor, building contractor, who, it is alleged, was lured to a downtown hotel and attacked by four men. The second indictment charged him with malicious destruction of the property of Philip Minkin, the front porch of whose home was destroyed by a bomb recently.

To retain that "Girlish Figure" and, at the same time keep sufficient strength to enable one to be happy and radiate sunshine, is a difficult task for some. The answer is BEANS. The doctors are now telling us that beans are alkaline and very useful in correcting an acid condition of the stomach, and we have known always that this was a strengthening food. One would wit having said that there is more mileage in beans than any one other food, except, perhaps, milk.

At any rate, beans are a very fine food and it is astonishing how many ways they can be prepared and served—in Soups, Boiled, Baked, Entrees, and as dressings and even in Biscuits and Breads!

MADDOX AND COHEN CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Smith's Fine Reception in Boston Pointed to as Good Omen.

G. E. Maddox, of Rome, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, and Major John S. Cohen, national democratic committeeman, attended a conference of democratic leaders held Thursday at state campaign headquarters and both expressed absolute confidence of a victory for the Smith and Robinson democratic ticket, not only in Georgia but in the nation.

Major Cohen declared that the reception given Governor Smith in Boston Wednesday night was a significant omen as to the way the trend of sentiment is flowing in the eastern states. He declared that the reports of the meeting, even in republican newspapers, showed that it was the greatest reception ever given a political candidate in that part of the country.

State headquarters also was the scene of a conference of ward committee workers of Atlanta, who formed plans for a whirlwind finish to the campaign in behalf of the democratic ticket.

The first of a series of several joint ward rallies in the interest of the democratic national ticket will be held Saturday night at the Fulton high school, on Washington street, when loyal democrats of the second and third wards will be addressed by former Congressman William Schley Howard and Emmitt Quinn. This rally was originally announced for Friday night but has been postponed one day.

A third rally will be held November 1 at the Georgia Avenue school. John A. Sibley will be the principal speaker. Still another rally will be at the Boulevard school on Tuesday, November 5, and the speaker will be Eb T. Williams.

In addition to the joint ward rallies, Bond Almond Friday morning announced a fourth ward rally for next Tuesday night, October 30, at the Smilie school on North avenue. The speakers on this occasion will be Charles B. Shelton, chairman Fulton county democratic club and Robert B. Troutman.

AGED MAN FOUND
SLEEPING IN PARK
JAILED, RELEASED

A trip to Almond Park, where he slept in the cold, landed Marshall Love, 73, of Carey Park, behind the bars of Fulton tower on a technical charge of vagrancy late Wednesday night, according to county police. Love was released from the tower Thursday afternoon when a friend appeared at the jail and promised to take care of him.

Love was the object of a county police search Tuesday after friends reported receipt of letters which stated that he was despondent, did not care to live, and would be found in Almond Park. The old man was found at his sister's home in Carey Park Wednesday morning, but Wednesday night he again attempted to brave the cold and sleep out in the open, county police said.

NEGRO SOPRANO
Florence Cole-Talbert To Appear Tonight.

Florence Cole-Talbert, noted negro soprano, will appear in recital tonight in the auditorium of the Booker Washington High school. The program will be under the auspices of the school and will begin at 8 o'clock.

The program will include Mozart's "Halleluia" and other favorite selections, closing with the spring song of the Robin Woman from the famous Indian opera "Shanewis."

J. S. KENNEDY NAMED STATE WELFARE HEAD

Prominent Atlanta Banker Succeeds Dr. J. G. Harrison as Chairman.

Election of J. Sherrard Kennedy, prominent Atlanta banker, as chairman of the state board of public welfare was announced at the office of the board Thursday. Mr. Kennedy was elected by unanimous vote to succeed Dr. J. G. Harrison, of Macon, who has held the post for the last five years and who will continue as a member of the board.

Mr. Kennedy is vice president of the Atlanta and Lowry National bank, and is active in the civic life of the city and state. In 1924 he was appointed by the governor as a member of the state board of public welfare, and in 1925 was elected as vice chairman, which position he since has held.

Mrs. J. A. Thomas, of Columbus, was elected vice chairman to succeed Mr. Kennedy. She has been prominent in welfare work over the entire state.

Resolutions of appreciation for the outstanding work of Dr. Harrison during his term as chairman were passed by the board. Under his leadership the welfare work has continued to make great strides in serving the people of the state.

Among those present at the annual meeting of the board were Miss Rhoda Kaufman, executive secretary of the department of public welfare; Dr. J. G. Harrison, Macon; Mrs. E. Suarez, Cuthbert; G. A. H. Harris, Jr., Rome; Mrs. J. A. Thomas, Columbus and J. S. Kennedy, Atlanta.

SECOND DAY'S A. M. E. CONFERENCE IS HELD

Field Workers Needed by Church in Foreign Lands.

Albany, Ga., October 25.—(Special.) The American Georgia annual conference of the A. M. E. church, holding daily sessions in Bethel A. M. E. church this city, opened its second day's morning session with Dr. John Harmon, of the Milledgeville district, Macon conference, conducting the devotional exercises.

Bishop W. A. Fountain, D. D., Ph. D., presiding bishop, is rushing conference work to a finish by Sunday night.

The missionary anniversary of the foreign fields of the church was programmed Wednesday night. Dr. J. A. Hadley presided. Bishop S. L. Greene, D. D., of South America, and the West Indies islands, spoke on "The Mission Fields of the A. M. E. Church," followed by his wife, who addressed the body on the "Essentials in Missionary Life in Foreign Fields."

Bishop Greene is seeking strong and capable workers for the fields, one from each episcopal district within the bounds of the church, and a sufficient support set aside by the conference to maintain the field workers.

The American district, Dr. J. W. English, presiding elder, Albany district, Dr. C. A. Wingfield, presiding elder; Hawkinsville district, Dr. A. P. Solomon, presiding elder, and the Lincoln district, Dr. J. W. Dennis, presiding elder, made final financial reports today.

Preachers stood the character test today before the conference and were passed upon by the body, which stood fair in life and conduct in service.

The following preachers have died during the year: C. J. Matthews, S. T. Glover, B. J. Ross, J. H. Coney.

Pastors who fall in conference reports must be changed for lesser appointments, the conference decided.

Committees reported today as follows: On class mission, J. C. Neeley, Thomas Jefferson, R. M. Foster, T. M. Mostley; on first year, E. G. Harris, I. H. K. owilton, L. C. Griffin, S. S. Moxey; on second year, A. P. Clarke, P. C. Clanton, L. A. Mason; on third year, C. W. Nicholson, G. B. Bulloch, Floyd Harder; on fourth year, C. A. Wingfield, J. E. Brown, J. H. Hall, J. H. Henderson, J. W. Hunt.

The missionary sermon tonight was preached by Dr. A. A. Duncan, of Dawson, Ga.

Friday night's educational anniversary speakers were listed as President J. C. Lawrence, Savannah; Dean G. A. Singleton, D. D., Turner Theological seminary; President W. A. Fountain, D. D., Ph. D., Morris Brown university, Atlanta, and Dr. W. H. Harris, D. D., treasurer, university system. Bishop W. A. Fountain, chancellor, will preside.

Pot Shot at Officer
Costs Negro His Liberty
For Three to Four Years

A pot shot at Patrolman H. O. Hambrick cost Frank Peters, negro, three to four years on the chain gang Thursday, when a jury in Judge John D. Humphries division of Fulton superior court found Peters guilty on charges of shooting at another.

Peters had been indicted for assault with intent to murder. It was alleged that he shot Officer Hambrick on May 2, when the officer arrived at Peters' house with other patrolmen summoned to quell a row.

Peters claimed that he thought he was shooting at some negroes with whom he had been having trouble, and that he did not know the officer was there, but the state contended that Peters was bound to know the police had arrived because one officer had already entered the house.

SCHOOL HEADS MEET Third District Executives Gather at Montezuma.

Fifty superintendents and principals of schools in the third district, gathered in Montezuma Tuesday for an all-day meeting. Members of the state department of education attending the meeting were Dr. E. A. Ponn, Dr. J. S. Stewart and Miss Esy Campbell.

Following an inspection of the Montezuma school, the meeting was called to order in the school auditorium by the president of the association, Major W. E. Queener, superintendent of the Montezuma schools. Speakers on the program were E. H. Joiner, superintendent of the school at Reynolds, who spoke on health programs; C. J. Cheves, Ashburn, teaching fundamental processes; W. H. Martin, Dawson, character development; J. H. Jenkins, Vienna, recreation for body and mind; Dr. J. S. Stewart, Athens, development of accredited high schools; C. M. Hall, Americus, scholarship of schools in districts; J. P. Nelson, Oglethorpe, development of rural junior consolidated high schools; J. # The MEN'S SHOPS

The Swagger $25.

A loose easy-fitting model that drapes smartly from the shoulders. Comes in a variety of novelty tweeds and chevrons; trimmed with deep satin yoke and satin sleeves. Each coat is Cravanetted—waterproofed. A good example of the values you will observe throughout our entire line.

An easy, graceful overcoat, smartly styled, gives one that comforting, self-satisfied feeling of immaculate grooming.

Especially so, if the coat is made of fashionable tweeds, or fleeces, or Camel's hair, or Llamair, or some of the soft chevrons and plaid-back materials that have warmth without weight.

Such materials not only are smart but are decidedly uncommon. The distinctive patterns are heather mixtures, overplaids, herringbone stripes, or perfectly plain. The shades are mostly rich browns, novelty grays, variegated mixtures or soft-tone hues in solid colors.

Such coats must, of course, be tailored to perfection or the smartness is lost in the making.

In our Men's Shops you see these sort of coats in a great variety of models; weights exactly suited to this climate. Most of them are Cravanetted.

Prices begin at the lowest margin of safety, and by easy stages step up—but not to dizzy heights. We see no reason for extravagance in the purchase of any overcoat.

CHRISTIAN MISSION ENDS WINTER MEETING

Most Successful in History, Leader Declares.

Winder, Ga., October 25.—(Special.)—The eighth annual session of the Georgia Christian Missionary convention was brought to a close here tonight following addresses by D. F. Tyndall and F. M. Rogers, interspersed with a brief business meeting and concluded with a song and prayer service.

The session, which had convened Tuesday night, was declared to have been the most successful in the history of the convention. Starting with a preliminary meeting Tuesday night, the gathering carried out a program of three sessions daily, during which addresses were delivered by outstanding personalities of the denomination in Georgia.

Thursday's morning session was featured by the annual report, which followed a devotional address by Dr. A. E. Cory and a prayer by D. R. Piper. E. B. Quick presided.

At the afternoon session, which was devoted to a discussion of the affairs of the younger generation of the church, led by J. Randall Farris, took up the unfinished business of the preceding meetings, following which an open forum was held to discuss all state problems. This was led by W. F. Mott, S. A. Strawn, A. R. Adams, W. A. Joyner, V. P. Bowers and others.

Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock a banquet was held for the young people, Williams Watson, president of the young people's conference, presiding.

POISONED LIQUOR BELIEVED CAUSE OF DAVIS' DEATH

Police Thursday were attempting to find the source of poison liquor which is thought by authorities to have caused the death of one man and the serious illness of another early Thursday morning.

According to police records, Charlie Davis, of an unknown address, was found dead in the rear of 49 Armstrong street and near him was found Frank Smith in a semi-conscious condition apparently suffering from the effects of poison whisky.

Davis' body was removed to Harry G. Boone's undertaking establishment pending the coroner's inquest. Smith was treated at Grady hospital and returned to police headquarters, where he was locked up on charges of being drunk.

NEW YORK LABOR LEADER ATTACKS HOOVER'S RECORD

New York, October 25.—(AP)—John Sullivan, president of the New York State Federation of Labor, has issued a statement charging Herbert Hoover with having an industrial record as atrocious and in contravention of all the standards and idealisms of our country.

Based on his statement on allegations made by James J. O'Brien, a structural engineer in Flushing, N. Y., who charged that Hoover used slaves in India, convicts in Russia and coolies in inhuman conditions in China on projects under his direction. Sullivan said that in the absence of any legislative record by Mr. Hoover that he must be judged on his personal and business attitude toward labor. Information furnished him by Mr. O'Brien, was that Hoover and his brother had been forced in 1913 by the British government to dispose of stock they held because of employment of slaves and that they organized a new corporation to continue the business in evasion of the law.

INJURED HUBBY FATALY KNIFED JUDAS FRIEND

Miami, Fla., October 25.—(AP)—Claiming the dual justification of self-defense and the twisted law of Metrie, 42, a Syrian, admitted to police that he had fatally knifed his erstwhile friend, Libbie Kavar, at the hotel where he had been staying. Kavar survived but a few minutes. At the hospital it was found his jugular vein had been severed, and that he had been stabbed a half dozen times.

Metrie told police he had befriended Kavar several months ago and that the man had been living at his home. Recently, he said, Kavar persuaded Metrie's wife to ask a divorce and come live with him.

Tarkington Success Presented by Players Of Local Studio Club

Booth Tarkington's Broadway success, "The Intimate Strangers," was presented Thursday night by the Atlanta Studio Club players in their theater at 132 Forsyth street, in a manner which left little doubt that the plays which will be presented by the club through the winter will be a delight to Atlanta audiences.

Janet Mills Shepherd played the feminine lead as Isabelle Stewart, and also acted as director of the production. George Rush played the male lead, William Ames. The play is a fast-moving story told in Tarkington's happy-go-lucky manner, and has to do with a romance which has its inception in a railroad station and moves with express train rapidity from then on to the curtain.

The initial performance Thursday night was given for members of the club and a few guests. Tonight the little theater will be open to the public. Only one public performance will be given.

Malcom R. McAdoo Will Tour Georgia Against Al Smith

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Headquarters of the Anti-Smith party announced here Thursday that Malcom R. McAdoo, a brother of William Gibbs McAdoo, will come to Georgia from his New York home next week to deliver four speeches against the democratic nominee. The dates were announced as follows: At Milledgeville, October 30; at Albany, November 1; and at Savannah, November 2.

Anti-Smith party headquarters, through Barry Wright, chairman, said Mr. McAdoo, as the brother of the former secretary of the treasury and a candidate in 1924 for the democratic nomination for the presidency, "expressed a wish to acquaint Georgia with the comparative records of Herbert Hoover and Governor Smith in light of his own observation of Tammany Hall."

Both Malcom R. McAdoo and his brother are native-born Georgians.

ERROR MADE IN NAME

G. S. Aiken Tells of Hoover Meeting.

G. Seals Aiken, who was principal speaker at an anti-Smith rally held at the Brookhaven school Tuesday night, Thursday asked The Constitution to correct an error in its report of the meeting, the original story giving his name as Field Aiken. Mr. Aiken said that the affair was only a community meeting, and that a large crowd had not been expected.

AL SMITH IS FAVORED IN EMORY STRAW VOTE

Students' Preference Turns to Nominee by Good Majority.

Students at Emory university Thursday staged a "comeback" for Governor Alfred E. Smith, when they reversed the ballot of last spring and declared a large majority for the democratic nominee for president. The poll was a part of a national straw vote taken by College Humor and participated in by The Emory Wheel and other leading college weeklies.

The vote was comprehensive, covering a majority of the students in all schools of the university. Seven hundred and eighty-four voted, and of this number, 450 were for Smith, 334 for Hoover. A slightly smaller poll, held last spring before the nominating conventions, gave Hoover a majority of the student vote. Hoover's support came chiefly from the professional schools, the republicans in the theology, medicine and graduate schools. The Lamar school of law, however, polled the largest majority in favor of Smith, the ratio being six to one in favor of the democratic candidate.

The theologs gave Hoover his largest majority, only seven of the "preachers" of the 47 who voted, going for Smith. The medical school gave Hoover a substantial, though not a large majority, and in the graduate school Hoover had it on Smith by only one vote.

EMORY UNIVERSITY PREPARES PROGRAM FOR "STUNT NIGHT"

Kern's musical play, "Show Boat," will be offered in the first half of the program at Emory university stunt night this year, according to Dr. Malcolm H. Dewey, director of the Glee club. The whole Tuesday night program at Emory will be held on two nights this year in the Emory auditorium. Features have been set for November 12-13.

Features on the program this year will be the "Little Symphony" orchestra, a musical and dramatic group for the "Show Boat" and the different skits, together with vocal selections by George Rogers, baritone soloist of the Glee club.

13 CANDIDATES SEEK FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICES

With 16 men entered in the race for Emory university freshman officers, "rat" day on November 6 promises to be of unusual interest to the class. The whole Tuesday night program at Emory will be held on two nights this year in the Emory auditorium. Features have been set for November 12-13.

FIRE COMMITTEE MEETING CALLED NEXT WEDNESDAY

Councilman William E. Saunders, of the twelfth ward, chairman of the Atlanta fire board, Thursday announced he has canceled the hearing slated before the board at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Representatives of the Southern Oil Stores, Inc., were slated to appear before the committee in an effort to establish two 20,000 gallon tanks on a Whitehall street site. The committee had failed to agree. Because of the inability of W. Paul Carpenter, attorney for the company, to attend the session, the meeting was postponed until 3 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon.

NEW BATHHOUSE TO BE COMPLETED AT MADDOX PARK

Completion of a new bathhouse at Maddox park by the time of the opening of the municipal swimming pools next spring was forecast Thursday by members of the park committee of city council.

L. J. Wallis, superintendent of parks and playgrounds, has received preliminary drawings from the architects, Edwards & Seyward, and detailed plans will be completed within a short time.

Officials will attempt to get an appropriation in the January finance sheet for the project which will be of stucco and tile.

SALESMANSHIP COURSE

Openings Occur in Opportunity School Class.

The first of several winter courses already having been completed, there now are several openings in the salesmanship course at the Atlanta Opportunity school, 55 1-2 Baker street. The course provides teaching and training for boys and girls between the ages of 16 and 20 years, who wish to work in a retail store two weeks and thereby benefit of the practical experience as well as technical instruction.

Atlanta Is Hit By First Frost; Warmer Today

The minimum temperature of 46 registered here Thursday was not the lowest of the month but was accompanied by the first frost this fall, according to the officials of the United States weather bureau here.

Winter has not yet put in its appearance. Mr. Von Hermann said at the outdoor today is continued fair and slightly warmer.

The maximum Thursday was 87 and the mercury is expected to climb a little above that today, he stated. More warm weather is in store here before any real cold weather arrives, he said.

SNOOK HEIRS WIN INCOME TAX CASE

New Orleans, October 25.—(AP)—The Fifth United States circuit court of appeals today ruled the government may not collect income tax twice on the same money in spite of involved accounting methods.

The decision was made in the case of the Bureau of Internal revenue against Thomas A. Snook, a coal operator. The case arose from the fact that the company which Snook operated a coal company which became involved in financial difficulties in 1920. The operators used their personal credit to tide the company over the lean periods and agreed not to pay salaries but to allow percentages of the net earnings to stand for compensation of the officers. This was done until the company was liquidated.

The officers paid income taxes on the amounts they received from the company. Following the liquidation, internal revenue agents taxed the company $39,150 for the same earnings paid the company officers, and their compensation and on which income tax had been paid.

The court also reversed a board of tax appeals' decision refusing Samuel J. Sams, who with four others was arrested late Wednesday when United States Marshal L. H. Crawford together with a group of prohibition officials, made a sudden raid on a farm owned by Sams near Woolsey, Ga., was bound over to the grand jury Thursday afternoon by United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith under $2,000 bond, on a charge of possessing whisky. Bond for Green Mitchell was fixed at $500, Ross Jones at $750 and Will Gay at $500 and James Pryor, $500. The last named four were caught in the same raid.

According to the report of the officers a 200-gallon still was found in operation on Sams' farm and they also found and destroyed more than 250 gallons of rye whisky. Continuing their operations, they raided two more stills of 200 gallons capacity near the Spaulding and Pike county line and destroyed about 150 gallons of whisky and 7,000 gallons of beer, the total value of which was estimated at $6,000.

ILLINOIS SOLON SENTENCED TO PEN FOR MAIL THEFTS

Chicago, October 25.—(AP)—Charles S. Wharton, former congressman and once assistant state's attorney, today was sentenced to serve two years in Leavenworth penitentiary by Federal Judge James H. Wilkinson on conviction of conspiracy in connection with the $125,000 Evergreen Park mail robbery last February.

Sentence was pronounced after a motion for a new trial had been denied but a stay of execution until November 19 was granted. Wharton accepted the sentence without show of emotion and said later he might appeal the case.

ALABAMA BANDIT, SLAYER OF BANKER, TO DIE IN CHAIR

Mobile, Ala., October 25.—(AP)—Jack Jarvis, 26, was convicted of the killing of Claude D. Hurt, bank cashier, by jury here tonight with a recommendation that he suffer death in the electric chair at the state prison. Jarvis will be sentenced tomorrow morning.

Jarvis in an attempt to rob the Citronelle State bank at Citronelle, Ala., 35 miles north of here shot and fatally wounded Hurt, while the latter was grappling with Robert Collins, another of the bank bandits, the latter to go on trial next month. Jarvis signed a confession of guilt that he shot Hurt when the latter was fighting off Collins and that he was careful to take deliberate aim and not shoot his gun. An insanity plea in behalf of Jarvis failed, experts testifying that he was sane. The trial lasted two days.

BOND COMPANIES EVINCE INTEREST IN ATLANTA SALE

Much interest is being manifested in financial circles in the proposed sale of $25,000,000 worth of Atlanta municipal bonds November 15, it was announced Thursday by Lawrence James, assistant city comptroller.

Circulars advertising the sale have been mailed to leading bonding houses of the country and many inquiries have been received.

The mayor, comptroller and city clerk are busy signing the bonds. Bids will be opened November 15 at 10 o'clock in the mayor's office and the best offer will go to council the following Monday for approval. The bonds can be delivered about December 1, it is said.

SPLIT ON PRAYER BOOK 1,000 Rectors Back Bishop Against London Clerics.

London, October 25.—(AP)—Not all the clergymen of the Established English church agree on the proposed revision of the prayer book. More than a thousand of the clergy of the Southwark diocese met at the Southwark cathedral today and, considering virtually the same questions that had confronted those of the London diocese, voted to support their bishop in sanctioning the practices contained in the 1928 revision.

In doing this they voted exactly contrary to the London clergy, which, by a very definite vote, rejected the revised prayer book.

MRS. BOOLE DESCRIBES SMITH AS SALOON AID

W. C. T. U. Leader Sees Attempt to Undermine Prohibition.

Evanston, Ill., October 25.—(AP)—Mrs. Ella A. Boole, national president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, tonight accused Governor Alfred E. Smith of seeking to "undermine prohibition and bring back his old love—the liquor traffic," in announcing the policy of the national temperance organization to be adopted in the final drive for the "election" of Herbert Hoover and Charles Curtis.

Mrs. Boole spoke before the state convention of the Illinois W. C. T. U., expressing what was described as "the W. C. T. U.'s campaign views on Governor Smith."

The national temperance leader began her attack on Governor Smith's views by asserting that he at no time had stated his opposition "to the evils that accompanied the liquor traffic when it was legalized, when he stated his position on prohibition."

"In those days he was a friend of the saloon, the beneficiary of its political influence, and a leader against all efforts to curb its power and protect women children from its devastating effects."

"Now he directs his energies against the eighteenth amendment and its enforcement code. He ascribes to the law all the evils that are the result of its violation."

Mrs. Boole, outlining Governor Smith's plan to state supervision of legalized liquor, said "he talks loosely when he says he would safeguard against the return of the saloon, for the experience in Canada has shown that under government control the progress is toward greater, not less, liberty in sale, and that in some of the provinces the beer parlor and wine parlors are already provided for."

"Governor Smith does not believe for does he express the hope or wish that all hard liquor will be driven out of the country by beer and light wines," Mrs. Boole said.

"The fact is, Governor Smith is not seeking to make prohibition a success. His object is to undermine it, to bring back his old love—the liquor traffic—as a legal institution. If he were elected president he would have no heart in enforcement no matter how volubly he might proclaim his intentions."

DEPUTY SHERIFF CAUGHT IN STILL RAID BOUND OVER

M. G. Sams, deputy sheriff of Fayette county, who with four others was arrested late Wednesday when United States Marshal L. H. Crawford together with a group of prohibition officials, made a sudden raid on a farm owned by Sams near Woolsey, Ga., was bound over to the grand jury Thursday afternoon by United States Commissioner E. S. Griffith under $2,000 bond, on a charge of possessing whisky. Bond for Green Mitchell was fixed at $500, Ross Jones at $750 and Will Gay at $500 and James Pryor, $500. The last named four were caught in the same raid.

KING HARDWARE COMPANY

BOGUS K. OF C. OATH LANDS COUPLE IN JAIL

Minister and Woman Held in Savannah for Passing Handbills.

Savannah, Ga., October 23.—(P)—Mrs. Ed C. Alumbaugh, of Macon, Ga., national secretary of the American Rangers, today was sentenced in municipal court here to pay fines of $125 or serve 40 days in jail after conviction of violating a city ordinance by distributing handbills without a permit and disorderly conduct by distributing printed matter calculated to cause disorder.

W. F. Larowe, said to have been employed by Mrs. Alumbaugh on a salary, was fined $100 or 30 days in jail for distributing printed matter calculated to cause disorder.

Neither paid their fines and both were locked up in the Chatham county jail.

Criminal Libel Charged.
At the completion of the case a warrant charging Mrs. Alumbaugh and Larowe with criminal libel was sworn to by Thomas F. Walsh, local attorney. Bonds of $1,000 for each defendant was set by Judge John E. Schwarz and the case placed on the police docket for tomorrow.

The warrant charged violation of the criminal code of Georgia and alleged that "the two defendants did circulate an oath alleged to have been taken by members of the Knights of Columbus, which alleged oath in false and holds up members of the Knights of Columbus to infamy and contempt and exposes them to public hatred, contempt or ridicule, and blackens the honesty, virtue, integrity and reputation of all such members of said Knights of Columbus."

In passing upon the contents of a circular in the case today Judge Schwarz said the court had read it thoroughly and found it to be "scandalous and seditious, the very height of disorderly conduct. I shall so judge it."

DRY AGENT DENIES HE TRIED TO SHOOT GIRL IN MOTOR CAR

Elyria, Ohio, October 23.—(P)—Evidence to show that Louis Cicco, Lorain municipal dry agent, did not intentionally shoot Miss Betty Heywood, 22, of Elyria, and that he was merely performing his official duties in trying to stop her automobile while watching for rum runners, was presented today as the defense neared the end of its case.

Cicco, charged with shooting with intent to wound, took the witness stand in his own defense just before court adjourned, but had time only to answer routine questions. He will resume his testimony tomorrow morning, after which the defense has indicated it expects to rest.

Britt Buda, Lorain city detective, testified as to experiments he had made which indicated that Miss Heywood could have been wounded by a glancing bullet. Cicco has contended that he fired at the pavement.

Arthur E. Hart, Cleveland gunsmith, said that the bullet which wounded the girl apparently had glanced from some rough surface.

PICTURE OF SMITH PLACED ON BENCH BY TELFAIR JUDGE

McRae, Ga., October 23.—The superior court of Telfair county was in session today, with a life size picture of Governor Alfred E. Smith posted in the judge's stand, just back of where his honor presided. Across this picture was an appeal to the people to vote for the New York governor for president.

OFFICIALS INDORSE ZONING AMENDMENT

Voters Urged To Ratify Proposed Change in November Election.

Macon, Ga., October 23.—(P)—Mayers and county officials from more than a score of Georgia cities in session here today unanimously adopted a resolution indorsing the proposed constitutional amendment giving towns with 25,000 population and over the legal right to adopt their own zoning and planning regulations.

Mayers, county officials and civic leaders all over the state were called upon to prepare statements for the newspapers urging the voters to ratify this zoning amendment in the general election November 8.

Cities with a population of 25,000 and over listed in the resolution included Atlanta, Savannah, Macon, Augusta, Columbus, LaGrange, Brunswick, Waycross, Albany, Athens, Valdosta, Rome and others.

To Appoint Commission.
It was said that a zoning commission should be appointed which would be composed of business leaders of the city, who would serve without pay.

It was the opinion of the majority of the officials that the special work necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of the zoning system could very well be carried out by a member of the building inspector's office, "such a man is available and is competent," but that such a matter would naturally be left within the discretion of the city.

Marshall J. Ellis, president of the Georgia Real Estate board, and Tom Jones, president of the Macon Realty board, both spoke in favor of the zoning and planning law.

Text of Resolution.
The meeting was called by Mayor Luther Williams at the suggestion of Mayor L. N. Ragsdale, of Atlanta, who presided.

The resolution read: "That statements be prepared for the newspapers to be placed if possible on the front page from mayors, leading business men, presidents of civic clubs and real estate dealers, setting forth the benefits to be derived from the establishment of the zoning system."

"We further recommend that a committee be formed with a representative from each of the congressional districts to have prepared articles to appear in the county newspapers of the districts urging their cooperation in having this zoning amendment carried."

"We recommend further that this committee aid in the same manner in having adopted these amendments which refer to purely local matters."

"We further recommend that the chairman of this meeting appoint from among the members present an executive chairman who will select a member from each congressional district to carry out the provisions set forth above."

GEORGE WESTCOTT, FORMER SHERIFF OF BIBB, PASSES

Macon, Ga., October 23.—(P)—George Samuel Westcott, 82, sheriff of Bibb county for 20 years and one of the oldest citizens of Macon, died today at his home here. He suffered a stroke of paralysis in August of last year and had been seriously ill since that time. He was also a former police chief of Macon.

Mr. Westcott was the oldest living member of the Mulberry Street Methodist church and the Floyd Rifles, old military organization here. Four daughters survive.

WOMAN CONFESSES TO PASSING BOGUS CHECKS, POLICE SAY

Tallahassee, Fla., October 23.—(P)—Mrs. W. H. Mackey, alias Mrs. R. E. Gilbert, of Winter Haven, confessed here today, police said, to passing forged checks at local stores in the amount of $30. Officials said the woman and her husband were apprehended at Anwarus, Ga., by Winter Haven detectives.

Police said the woman had implicated her husband, who she said obtained credentials belonging to Dr. R. E. Gilbert, of Winter Haven, which made the passing of checks easy.

FLORIDIAN LOSES LIFE IN MOTOR CRASH IN GEORGIA

Tallahassee, Fla., October 23.—(P)—Albert B. Lowe, 36, was killed when his automobile went out of control near Quitman, Ga., last night, it was learned here today. Lowe was returning from Valdosta, where he had been on a business trip. He was a salesman, unmarried and lived here.

Police said the car was traveling at a high rate of speed when it left the road and struck a tree.

The car was a 1927 Ford, and was traveling south on Highway 1.

The driver was alone in the car at the time of the crash.

The car was damaged beyond repair.

The body was recovered and is being held at the local morgue.

The cause of the crash is being investigated.

The investigation is being handled by the local police.

Ground Broken for Great Laundry Here

This photograph shows officials of Atlanta Laundries, Inc., breaking ground for their big new daylight laundry plant on Glen Iris drive, just off Ponce de Leon avenue. This plant will serve laundry patrons not only from the north side, but from all over Atlanta. When completed, it will be one of the most completely equipped laundry plants in the world, officials say. In the foreground with the pick is George H. Fauss, president of Atlanta Laundries, Inc. With the shovel is Thomas A. Martin, executive vice president. Others in the picture are, from left to right, Russell Baker, assistant treasurer; Ben F. May, vice president; C. D. ## THREE ALLEGED YEGGS HELD IN JACKSONVILLE

Jacksonville, Fla., October 23.—(P)—Three men, said by police to have confessed to an unsuccessful attempt to rob the Clinch County bank at Homerville, Ga., on the night of October 17, were in jail here today, while two other men were being sought.

Those under arrest gave their names as Ellis Pickett, 20, J. B. Cook, 36, and B. E. Peavy, 32, all of local addresses.

Sam Goodwin, night watchman in Homerville, declared he was positive that Pickett and Cook were two of the men who seized him on the night of the robbery attempt, bound him and left him in the woods three miles from town.

Police said they learned that the robbery accidentally was frustrated by a youth who rushed by the bank with a flashlight while the men were trying to open the safe. The boy was endeavoring to catch a freight train, but seeing a robbery in progress, ran in another direction and spread the alarm. The robbers fled.

An abandoned acetone torch led to Cook's arrest, police having traced the purchase to a local firm.

Meanwhile postal inspectors tried to connect the trio with robbery of $40,000 in stamps from the LaGrange, Ga., postoffice some two weeks before the episode at Homerville. The trio held now deny any connection with the postoffice robbery.

GEORGIA BAPTIST MEET TO BE HELD AT THOMASVILLE

Thomasville, Ga., October 23.—Thomasville will entertain the Georgia Baptist convention early in December. This will be the first convention held in the new $120,000 church edifice of the denomination, and also will be the first time the state convention has met in this city.

Reports received are to the effect that the convention will be more largely attended this year than at any time in the history of the Baptist church in Georgia.

E. O. OETGEN GIVEN TWO YEARS IN PEN IN MAILS MISUSE

E. O. Oetgen, on trial for using the mails to defraud, was found guilty in federal district court Thursday and sentenced by Judge S. H. Sibley to two years in the federal penitentiary.

The jury was out about two hours. Oetgen claimed that he needed a month to get his business in order and the sentence was deferred for 30 days on posting of $1,500 bond.

John Gann was given three years on a charge of selling morphine. Narcotic agents testified that Gann is one of the largest retail dope dealers in Atlanta, and already has served two sentences.

LITHONIA CHURCH SETS ASIDE SUNDAY FOR HOME-COMING

Lithonia, Ga., October 23.—(Special)—"Home-coming day" will be observed by the Lithonia Methodist church next Sunday. All members, former members, former pastors and friends are invited.

Sunday school will begin at 9:30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Norton, at 11 o'clock, after which a basket dinner will be served by the ladies on the church grounds.

At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon Dr. R. L. Russell, pastor of the Druid Hills Methodist church, will speak on "Evangelism." The pastor will preach again at 7 o'clock in the evening.

FLOOD RELIEF WORK, NEAR PAHOKEE, FLA., SET BACK BY FIRE

West Palm Beach, Fla., October 23.—(P)—Relief work in the hurricane area between Pahokee and Belle Glade received a setback last night when the first canal bridge north of Belle Glade was virtually destroyed by fire, thus closing the highway between the towns, reports reaching here said today.

Burning debris along the roadside was believed to have been blown onto the bridge, igniting the fire-span structure. Members of a volunteer fire brigade from Pahokee were unable to cope with the flames.

County Engineer Jake Boyd announced that a temporary bridge would be reopened by Sunday.

Mercer Student Saves Old Negro By Giving Blood

Macon, Ga., October 23.—(P)—Lee Battle, aged negro servant of Mercer university for over 29 years, who has been in a critical condition at the Macon hospital for the past several weeks, was given a new lease on life Thursday when Fred Shaw, of Tifton, a sophomore of the institution, gave a pint of his blood in transfusion in an effort to save the aged dandy's life.

A number of students at Mercer quickly volunteered their blood when the appeal was read at class rooms Wednesday. Shaw was the only one found to be acceptable.

After the transfusion Shaw returned to his studies. The condition of the aged negro was said to be improved Thursday.

$150,000 SITE BOUGHT FOR LAUNDRY PLANT

W. J. Stoddard To Erect Big
Building on Site at West
Peachtree and Third.

Transfer of commercial property aggregating $220,000 and plans for immediate erection of one of the largest and most modern laundry and dry cleaning plants in this section were disclosed Thursday in a real estate transaction between Mel R. Wilkinson and W. J. Stoddard. The plant is to be constructed on a large portion of the corner at West Peachtree and Third street, sold by Mr. Wilkinson to Mr. Stoddard. Three stores with frontage on West Peachtree street are planned as improvements for the remainder of the property.

The old Edward Van Winkle residence, which is included in the parcel, now is being razed to make way for the improvements and actual construction will be started as soon as the lot is cleared, with the cleaning and dyeing plant to be erected first, followed by erection of the three stores. Mr. Stoddard, head of the Stoddard Dry Cleaning and Dyeing company, stated.

Bounded by Three Streets.
The parcel acquired by Mr. Stoddard is bounded by three streets, having a frontage of 200 feet on West Peachtree, 236 feet on Third and 200 feet on Cypress street, east of West Peachtree. The property was valued at $150,000. The other parcel in the transaction was the vacant lot on Houston street, between Ivy and Courtland, measuring 107 1/2 by 150 feet, and valued at $70,000. Mr. Stoddard gave the Houston street parcel as part payment on the future plant site. Negotiations were handled by the Burdett Realty company agents, while the Atlanta Title and Trust company had charge of examination and insurance of titles.

With exception of 75 feet on West Peachtree street, at the Third street corner, where Mr. Stoddard plans to erect three stores, each measuring 25 by 100 feet, the entire lot is to be devoted to the laundry plant site. The plant will be two stories high and contain 60,000 square feet. It is to be of the latest design and equipped with new machinery and a new power plant. Ground floor plans and details for the machinery layout are due to arrive today by airplane from Philadelphia. Mr. Stoddard was advised Thursday night.

Houston Street Enhancement.
Notable enhancement in property values in the Houston street section was revealed in the transaction. The parcel acquired by Mr. Wilkinson disclosed a valuation of little more than $700 per front foot for the inside vacant property, setting what is believed to be a new record price for the section. The last recorded price was said to have brought $500 per front foot.

An important factor in setting the new record price, it was understood, was the proposed large development by the Southern Bell Telephone company on the parcel recently purchased by that concern on the northeast corner of Ivy street and Auburn avenue. The telephone company's property is in the same block with the Houston street property and a portion adjoins the lot acquired by Mr. Wilkinson.

The Houston street property was purchased by Mr. Stoddard three years ago from the Massell Realty company for $50,000 and revealed rapid enhancement in the short period turnover. Mr. Wilkinson stated he had no immediate plans for development of the property, but would make such improvements in the future as demand required.

HEFLIN DECLARES SMITH IS BOLTER

where they can't ignore me," he said. "The Constitution quoted a part of a speech I made in the senate protesting against the Hoover anti-segregation order. I rose in my seat in the senate as a senator from the south and criticized Hoover for issuing that order. I thought he made a mistake at the time and I think Hoover himself now realizes he made a mistake. I don't retract anything I said in that speech. But on that very same day I also criticized Governor Al Smith for his speech with question, and I found him to be so much blacker than Hoover that I almost forgot Hoover. There is not a republican in the country with a blacker record than that of Smith. The Constitution also quoted the Anniston, Ala., Star to the effect that I had received pay from a certain secret order for making speeches. That Anniston paper is a lying sheet and I denounce the writer of the article in

The Anthon paper as a coward, a liar and a scoundrel. I am paying my own expenses on my tour and am not receiving a cent from the party. I feel physical strain and at a great personal sacrifice. And I want to say right here that the people of Alabama are going to elect Smith in the next election day and defeat Smith by more than 30,000 majority."

Senator Heflin denounced "Protestants and Catholics" who were on the stump for Smith. He said these speakers are "attacking Protestant ministers" and said they are "defending the Catholics." He said: "The great democratic leaders are trying to 'read out of the party' democrats who oppose Governor Smith."

"Well," he continued I am going back to Alabama and organize the democratic party in that state and I'll come over here and help you."

Mr. Heflin said: "We'll call ourselves Jeffersonian democrats."

Hits Pro-Smith Speakers.

The senator referred to the pro-Smith speakers as "snarled-headed" and "snarled-tongued" and "snarled-tongued" Governor Smith as "Alfred, the pope's anointed."

"But the die is cast for Alfred and the pope will have no reason to rejoice," the senator said. "The senator predicted, 'Smith will be defeated in Alabama, North Carolina, Florida, Tennessee, Virginia, Missouri and Oklahoma among the southern states. If you get to get to New York here you'll get Georgia in the anti-Smith column. Why, Smith is not even going to carry New York in this election.'"

The speaker said that "Catholics swarmed into the New York convention four years ago and threatened to bail if Smith were not nominated and challenged that they would hold him back." He said they took John F. Davis "up on a mountain, got him to denounce the Ku Klux and then threw him over." He charged that "Catholics are determined to dominate or destroy the democratic party." He said "Smith obtained his nomination republican states and through the betrayal of the south by the states of Louisiana, Maryland, Kentucky and Arkansas." He charged that Smith obtained the nomination at Houston through "fraud, false pretenses, hypocrisy and deception." He referred to the telegram Governor Smith sent to the Houston convention announcing his views on the prohibition law.

When Smith said that telegram he belted the democratic party, and here he did that he excused every democrat in the nation from voting for him, the speaker said. On the other hand, he said that John J. Raskob, a Roman Catholic, "well, republican to manage his campaign."

Franklin D. Roosevelt as "Al Smith's man Friday," and said Roosevelt engineered the move at the Houston conference to elect Smith to the tourment "before delegates desiring to protest against Smith's telegram could get a hearing."

But when he denounced Tammany hall, denied that Tammany had ever been the true friend of the south, and said that the Tammany "turned their backs on the south" when the Dyer anti-lynching bill was before congress, declared that "Smith, Olverney and Cardinal Hayes," declared that Smith had never made an effort to have a law passed against the inter-marriage of blacks and whites, charged that Smith favors

The speaker told several funny stories during his speech and was frequently interrupted by applause. He spoke under the auspices of the Junior Order of American Mechanics and was introduced to the audience by Carl F. Hutcheson.

EVIDENCE OF POISON IN NEWMAN DEATH

Partial Post-Mortem Shows Famous Novelist Victim of Verenol.

New York, October 25.—(AP)—Poison in sufficient quantity to cause death was found in the body of Miss Frances Newman by City Toxicologist Alexander Goettler, it was announced today. The novelist died in a New York hotel on Monday. Pneumonia and cerebral hemorrhage were thought at the time to have been the cause of death.

The poison, verenol, obtainable by insomnia sufferers without prescription, was found after examination of the brain and stomach by two assistant medical examiners and the toxicologist.

DR. STRATON SUES WORLD FOR $200,000, ALLEGING LIBEL

New York, October 25.—(AP)—The Rev. Y. Announcement of the action was made at the church offices today.

Dr. Straton acquired the hotel property shortly before the time last summer that he charged from Governor Smith's administration was the most bitter foe in America today of the forces of moral progress and true political wisdom.

AIR MAIL CONTRACT MIA MI TO NASSAU IS LET BY GLOVER

Washington, October 25.—(AP)—Contract for carrying mails from Miami to Nassau, Bahamas, was awarded today to the Pan-American Airways, Inc., by Acting Postmaster General Glover.

The contract is for a period of ten years. It calls for carrying mails one way three times a week, the quantity not to exceed 800 pounds on a single trip. The contract was awarded for $2 a mile on a schedule satisfactory to the postmaster general.

Better Than Whiskey For Colds and Flu

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspirin. The two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories, tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful Aspirin. You can have it to do it to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk 60c for a bottle of Aspirin and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful. With your watch in your hand, take the drink

Lindy Gets Permit To Kill Two Bears While in Mexico

Mexico City, October 25.—(AP)—The department of agriculture issued today to Colonel Charles Lindbergh, who is hunting on the Hal Mangum ranch, in northern Mexico, permission to kill two cinnamon bears and two deer.

Friends of Colonel Lindbergh's received word today that the aviator had shot his first deer within three hours of his arrival at the ranch.

MRS. WILLEBRANDT AGAIN HITS TAMMANY

Nashville, Tenn., October 25.—(AP)—Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, U. S. assistant attorney general, in an address here tonight urged southern democrats, especially democratic women, to support Herbert Hoover for the presidency because he believes in the removal of the "abuses" of the 18th amendment and not removal of the amendment.

"We must admit abuses have grown up around the amendment," she said, "but Mr. Hoover promises to remove the abuses, while Governor Smith says he will go over the country advocating repeal of the amendment, but at the same time will enforce it. It is queer logic."

"So far as prohibition enforcement is concerned, conditions in New York have been worse under Governor Smith's administration than any other state," she declared.

Prohibition, immigration and Tammany were listed as outstanding issues by Mrs. Willebrandt.

"Tammany is the rottenest of all city machines," she said, "and Governor Smith is its child. There is corruption in this city machine, such as Philadelphia and Chicago, but there exposures are being made and cleanups are under way, while Tammany is powerful enough to defeat any exposures."

To follow Governor Smith's plan of restricting immigration would increase immigration from southern Europe several hundred per cent, Mrs. Willebrandt said.

Mrs. Willebrandt devoted much of her lengthy address to a review of Hoover's life and declared that America would never again have a man of "undoubted talents and leadership" like him "four times evaded his opportunity to uphold the constitution."

Governor Smith's plan for prohibition is "no new thing in America," she said, "as South Carolina once put on a white apron and noted as a tender under the state realized the law was a failure."

Grace Overcomes Law of Gravity For Local Group

Coincidental with the announcement by a young British scientist that he has overcome gravity comes the knowledge that Atlanta at the present time is host to a man who can do the same thing and will do it again before as many Atlantans as wish to watch next Monday night at the Biltmore hotel.

This remarkable man is Sergius P. Grace, vice president of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc., an authority on sound transmission and nationally known among scientists. Before a group of several interested persons, Mr. Grace Thursday suspended one piece of metal in the air over a second piece and made the suspended one remain in the air for some time.

Mr. Grace explained to his amazed audience that there was really nothing extraordinary in the phenomenon. "It was simply a matter of a highly charged piece of cobalt steel repelling a like piece when the bars were placed in such a position as to bring the like charges opposite each other."

In commenting on the claims of the British scientist, Mr. Grace made it clear that he did not claim to have beaten the Englishman to anything in the way of gravitation-defying experiments. "I have had no chance to learn just what the British scientist claims and I do not wish to detract from any discovery he may have made. I merely offer this as one proof of the activity of the research of the Bell telephone system," Mr. Grace explained.

He further explained that the gravitation trick is merely a diverting little experiment of an amusing nature which he had planned to perform with several others of a more difficult and serious nature at a public demonstration on Monday night. The demonstration is being given in connection with the regional convention of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

EPISCOPALIANS END MEET WITH PLEA FOR WORLD PEACE

Washington, October 25.—(AP)—Bearing a parting message from the Episcopal church to the world, the 40th triennial convention of the Protestant Episcopal church today turned homeward after two weeks of session in the nation's capital.

With a ringing declaration that the "most momentous task which faces the world today is the warfare against war," the bishops in the pastoral letter called upon the membership of the church throughout the country to give its support to all worthy movements for peace.

At the same time, the bishops said, there should be a greater unity among Christian churches. "If Catholic and Protestant cannot find a way to live together in peace, then the world is a place of darkness and gloom," they said. "We are yet in our sin," the letter declared.

TWO FRENCH PILOTS, LONG HELD CAPTIVE, ARE FINALLY FREE

Paris, October 25.—(AP)—Two French airmen named Serre and Reine, who were captured by wild tribesmen three months ago when they made a forced landing in the wild Rio de Oro region of Spanish Africa, were safe today.

The Spanish government announced that the men were with the Spanish authorities at Villa de Cisneros, Rio de Oro, and were in good health.

Engine trouble forced the airmen down in the wild country as they were flying toward Dakar, Senegal, with mail for South America.

Serre and Reine were seized by tribesmen who demanded a ransom of one million pesetas (about $100,000). Other tribes, getting wind of the affair, rushed up and fought over the two captives.

While French and Spanish authorities negotiated for the release of the airmen, the pilots were dragged about from place to place and suffered numerous privations. They passed through hope and despair alternately as negotiations went on.

All obstacles were finally overcome by the combined efforts of Colonel De La Pena Cusani, Spanish high commissioner, a representative of the French colonial administration and the airmen's company. The terms of which the release was obtained were not announced.

DEMOCRATS PASS $3,000,000 MARK IN CAMPAIGN FUND

Washington, October 25.—(AP)—The democratic national committee in a report filed today with house special campaign funds committee showed that its total receipts from June 1, 1938, including balance carried over from the old committee, had on October 22 reached a total of $3,065,038. During the present campaign up to October 22 the committee had paid out $2,951,032.

The report pointed out that the receipts included the $500,000 loan which had been previously reported as having been repaid. Most grateful, interest on its bank account and collections by state officers which had not been tabulated.

WOMAN IMPLICATED IN MEXICAN CRIME

Mexico City, October 25.—(AP)—When Carlos Castro Balda pleaded guilty yesterday in the federal court to exploding a bomb in the chamber of deputies, he gave testimony to the effect that a woman, Maria Elena Manzano, had been sent to Celaya for the purpose of poisoning President Calles and General Alvarez Obregon with an infected needle. This was to be done at a dance.

Senorita Manzano was questioned in court today regarding the affair. She said that with several companions she went to Celaya with the intention of poisoning the president and the president-elect, but found the plan impracticable owing to the precautions taken to protect these officials.

Castro Balda, she asserted, was present at a meeting in the home of Mother Superior Concepcion, where plans were discussed, and he told her that his only object was to get rid of the enemies of the revolution.

Senorita Manzano, Pena de Alta, charged with rebellion for having "associated with rebels," testified that she had no part in the plot. De Leon Toral, the assassin of General Obregon, to a hut in the country to hear mass. The poems were present, she said, but were unarm.

Missing Student Bound, Gagged, Found on Porch

Oakland, Cal., October 25.—(AP)—Craig Lewis, 23, University of California student, who has been missing since Sunday, October 8, was found bound and gagged late last night on the porch of his home.

He showed signs of rough treatment, including a 14-inch laceration on his head. Police said he was too dazed to give a coherent account of what had happened to him.

Lewis' sister, Miss June Cochran, found the student when she opened the door to learn the cause of a noise. She said she found him with his hands tied, a gag in his mouth and his shirt in tatters.

"They got me," the girl said Lewis muttered. "I got away but they got me again." They hit me. I was given plenty."

Lewis is the son of R. L. Lewis, oil operator at Huntington Beach, Calif. Police were unable to construct any theory about his disappearance and return.

G. O. P. Congressional Committee Reports On Funds Disbursed

Washington, October 25.—(AP)—The national republican congressional committee today reported receipts up to October 20 of $235,034, all but $25 coming from the national committee. Disbursements to October 18 were $150,905, most of it going in sums of $500 each to republican candidates for congress.

The democratic national congressional committee reported receipts to October 8 of $57,472, all from the national committee. From September 1 to October 17 it reported disbursements of $50,903. A large number of its disbursements were of $500 each to democratic candidates for congress, although there were several of $1,000, including payments to Zebulon Weaver, of the tenth North Carolina, and Herbert J. Drane, of the first Florida. There were a number of $1,000 republican disbursements and several were in North Carolina, where a hot fight is being made by the republicans.

CURTIS PLEDGES G. O. P. LEGISLATIVE FARM AID

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON, Associated Press Staff Writer. Coshocton, Ohio, October 25.—(AP)—Republican support of legislation necessary to give agriculture "equal protection with other industries" was pledged here today by Senator Charles Curtis, the republican vice presidential nominee in his first Ohio appearance.

Speaking at a large afternoon meeting in this agricultural section, the vice presidential nominee emphasized the need for farm relief and declared little could be expected from the democrats, "because of their tendency to meddle with the tariff, the backbone of farm protection."

The senator said Governor Smith "came out west to see a real farm." He declared that the democratic nominee had "let the impression" at Omaha that he favored the equalization fee provision of the vetoed McNary-Haugen farm bill, but that later he stated he would appoint a commission to work out the farm problem.

"What was the situation in 1920, the last year of the Underwood tariff bill?" Curtis asked. "We imported $3,127,000,000 worth of farm products into this country. Of that amount $2,000,000,000, could have been produced on American farms."

PROBE IN DEATHS OF TWO CHILDREN COMES TO AN END

New York, October 25.—(AP)—Investigation into the 13-story fall from a hotel roof of two young grandsons of the late Benjamin Guggenheim was closed today with the deaths officially pronounced "entirely accidental."

The children, Terrence, 4 1/2 years old, and Benjamin, 14 months old, fell from the roof of the Hotel Surrey last Friday while their mother, Mrs. Milton S. Waldman, was waiting for a friend who occupies a pent house there.

Dr. Charles Norris, chief medical examiner, conducted an investigation independent of the police, and announced his finding after examining seven witnesses. The police had twice announced that the deaths were accidental.

Dr. Newton Booth Waller testified Mrs. Waldman was too ill to be questioned.

Pasteur Treatment Given Three More In Jacksonville, Fla.

Jacksonville, Fla., October 25.—(AP)—Three more victims were added today to the list of persons submitting to Pasteur treatment for mad dog bites, bringing the total to 12.

An unidentified man bitten by a small poodle dog, known to have had rabies, still had not sought treatment and was believed to be unaware of his predicament.

The new victims, Mrs. Henry T. Katz and her two small children, were bitten by a stray dog Tuesday afternoon.

The stray dog was shot by a policeman and the state health department found it was suffering from rabies. Orders were issued for the impounding of all loose dogs whether licensed or not.

Group at Emory Perfecting Instrument For Diagnoses

WILL REVOLUTIONIZE WORK, PROFESSORS SAY

BY C. M. McILLAN. A group of Emory professors are working on apparatus which, they believe, will revolutionize the work in determining causes of diseases. The speed of diagnoses and tests will be enormously increased, it is said.

Dr. J. L. McGhee, head of the biochemical research laboratories of Emory, Frances Parker and Dr. George T. Louie, assistants, and Dr. Frank J. Studer and Newton Underwood, of the physics department, compose the group. They have been working for several months on these instruments, which were displayed during the convention of the Interstate Post-Graduate Medical Assembly of North America, recently held in Atlanta.

HOOPER ALEXANDER BREAKS INTO JAIL ASSAILS GOVERNOR TO STEAL PISTOL, FOR BALLOT FORM NEGRO IS ARRESTED

Rome, Ga., October 25.—(AP)—Hooper Alexander, nominated for the legislature from DeKalb county, in an anti-Smith address here tonight declared that Governor L. G. Hardman in approving the form of Australian ballot to be used in many counties in the state "usurped authority in three particulars" that would "disfranchise thousands."

Mr. Alexander said: "The governor port and usurped authority in three particulars: 'First, he had, under the terms of the statute, nothing to do with the matter at all. The law imposed the entire duty and responsibility on the secretary of state and the ordinaries, and the governor is not mentioned in the act.'

"Second, having meddled in the matter and usurped the power to give directions, it was his clear and manifest duty under the law to recognize the tickets as certified by the secretary of state and expressly approved by the attorney general. He had no right to discriminate."

"Third, in departing from the known and established usage under which we have always elected the members of the legislature, he imposed a vote, a practice expressly commanded by the statute, and in himself, ordering the contrary method, he violated the law he was sworn to support."

"The combined operation of these three violations of law is bound to disfranchise thousands."

Barry Wright, of Rome, chairman of the anti-Smith democratic party of Georgia, also was a speaker at the meeting. He declared that he was not voting, a practice expressly commanded by the statute, and in himself, ordering the contrary method, he violated the law he was sworn to support."

TWO MOTORCYCLES DAMAGED BY AUTO USED BY HEFLIN

The automobile which bore Senator J. T. Heflin, of Alabama, to the city auditorium for his speech Thursday night ran amuck following the meeting, when it broke loose from its moorings and damaged two city motorcycles, according to police reports. The car was unoccupied.

Motorcycle Officers Hamilton and McLean reported that they had left the "cycles parked against the curb on Courtland street and during their absence the automobile was parked immediately behind the motorcycles with the auto's bumper resting on one of the machines. When they returned their motorcycles the automobile rolled forward and smashed the two motorcycles.

The case was called. Grange stood beside the mother, at whom he still refused to glance. With timid glances at Grange, she said she met him while he was staying at a down town hotel where she was employed and told of trip to his home. She ended by charging he was the father of the baby.

Grange's attorney arose. He asked for continuance until November 13, "to give time for investigation."

"Continued," announced the court as a gavel banged.

BROKER EXPELLED FOR GIVING FALSE INCOME TAX DATA

New York, October 25.—(AP)—Henry R. Monroe, of the brokerage firm of Monroe, Saffin & Davis, today was expelled from membership in the New York Stock Exchange. The board of governors announced it had found him guilty of making false income tax returns to the United States government and the state of New York. His firm does a commission business, and he was its only exchange member.

HOOPER THINKS VOTER A BOOB, SAYS RITCHIE

Maryland Governor Avers Nominee Lacks Faith in Democracy.

Camden, N. J., October 25.—(AP)—Governor Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland, in an address tonight, pictured Herbert Hoover as a cold, silent individualist who refused to discuss the issues of the presidential campaign because he considers the American voter a "boob."

Contrasting the republican nominee with Governor Smith, the Maryland governor said Hoover was a "great man on the wrong job" because he lacked the qualities of heart and head to deal with American democracy and the complexities of human government.

"Smith has faith in democracy and in the ability of the common man to both think and feel, and Hoover hasn't," he declared. "Smith believes that the people are not simply an abstract non-thinking mass who follow a leader as sheep follow a shepherd. He thinks of them as fellow-men who are just as capable of thinking as he is."

Hoover sits silent because he thinks the great democratic mass is composed of bores who haven't mind enough to understand public questions or to see through his silence. To me Hoover's greatest contribution to this campaign is his silence."

Hoover, he added, ignores Smith "because Smith belongs to the masses and the masses must always ignore the masses."

Marquerite Durand, Alleged Rosso Decoy, Freed by Mussolini

Rome, October 25.—(AP)—Marquerite Durand, who was the companion of General Cesare Rossi, Italian politician, at the time of his arrest at Campione, near the Swiss border last August, has been released from prison.

An examining magistrate absolved her of any responsibility in the charges against General Rossi.

General Rossi, who was a former minister in the Mussolini cabinet went into exile after the Matteotti affair several years ago. He was a member of the group that arranged the famous march on Rome in 1922. At that time he was a close friend of Premier Mussolini, later becoming head of the fascist press bureau. He fled from Italy after the Matteotti affair, vowing vengeance against Mussolini.

Paris reports at the time of his arrest declared that the trip across the border into Italy was a "sentimental journey" and that a woman had been used to lure him from Swiss territory.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

ROOTERS AND IN HOOSGOW BEFORE GAME

Sebring, Ohio, October 25.—(AP)—Six Alliance high school youths were in jail here today as the outcome of a pitched battle with vegetables for ammunition between supporters of the football teams of the Alliance and Sebring High schools last night. Alliance are Sebring were scheduled for a gridiron clash today and between 50 and 75 Alliance rooters came here last night and started to tear down the purple and gold emblems of the Sebring team which hung from flagpoles about the town. The Sebring youths massed and a general free-for-all, with cabbages and tomatoes flying freely, followed. Police managed to disperse the crowd with the exception of six Alliance boys. The six turned their attention to a patrolman, who exhibited a blackened eye today. The officer with the help of a bystander finally herded them into the jail. Officers declined to allow anyone to see the boys in jail today, but said they would be given a hearing before Mayor E. F. Harmon tonight on a charge of disorderly conduct. The arrested youths gave their last names as Valentine, Peters, Miller, Cooley, Anderson and Zimmer.

Colored Champion Will Fight Here

Insisting that his shows are getting better with each succeeding one, Billy Hooper stated Thursday that he was ready for another show Monday night and thereafter he will offer to the public a series of matches every week. Billy intends to bring back the southern featherweight champion, Richard Moore, of Texas, for his main engagement, booking him for 10 rounds against Kid Moon. And Billy speaks highly of Moon, pointing out that he has defeated Battling Cyclone, Dall Davis, Willie Thomas, Harry Debbie, Jim Smith, K. O. Williams and Kid Harris. Moore and Moon were to have fought on the last card but Hooper decided to hold them over to feature the approaching list of engagements. George Hains meets Battling Henry for eight rounds and Battling Bush fights Joe Petty for eight in the other outstanding battles. Old colored Elks' Rest, Fort street and Edgewood avenue, is the place and white fans will have the usual accommodations, Billy says.

Hood Stops Frattini.

London, October 25.—(AP)—Jack Hood, of Birmingham, welterweight champion of Great Britain, stopped Bruno Frattini, of Italy, in the third round of their bout at Albert hall tonight. The Italian was completely outclassed and after he went down thrice in the third round the referee stopped the fight just as Frattini's seconds tossed in the towel. Teddy Baldock, crack British bantam, knocked out Phil Lolosky, of Aldgate, in the third round of another bout.

Anniversary of the Birth of Theodore Roosevelt

As lieutenant-colonel of the Rough Riders of San Juan Hill in '98, as governor of New York, as president of the United States for seven and a half years of moment, as friend and critic of the American nation for two decades—Roosevelt warmed the hearts of his countrymen by adventurous wrestling with the questions of his day.

Through his mother, whose girlhood home was in Roswell, Ga., the South claims a share in this vigorous personality.

Stone Mountain Memorial Gains Support Georgia Division U. D. C.

BY LAMAR SPARKS.

Following the adoption of a resolution proposing that the Georgia division, U. D. C., support and cooperate with G. F. Willis, president of the Stone Mountain Memorial association, and the association itself, five state officers were elected by the Georgia division, U. D. C., at the Thursday session of that body in convention here in St. Mark's church. A clause was included in the resolution saying that the Georgia division, by adoption of the resolution, is not obligated financially in any way. The resolution, thanked G. F. Willis, president of the association, for the speech made before the convention Wednesday, in which he laid before the meeting plans for continuance of the work.

Mrs. H. A. Craig, of Augusta, was elected recording secretary of the Georgia division. Other state officers elected were Mrs. L. D. T. Quinby, president of the Fulton chapter, treasurer, Mrs. E. A. Caldwell, of Monroe, registrar, Mrs. Kirby Smith, of Madison, historian, and Mrs. John A. Perdue, of Atlanta, honorary president. Other officers of the Georgia division not selected Thursday were elected for two years at the convention in Covington a year ago. The officers were elected without opposition as presented by the nominating committee, which included Mrs. Forest Kibler, Mrs. Charles Moore, of Milledgeville; Mrs. H. M. Franklin, of Tannville; Mrs. Oscar McKenzie, of Montezuma, and Mrs. Charles Tillman, of Quitman.

Other resolutions adopted at the Thursday session include that establishing that the library-museum building to be erected by the Georgia division of the U. D. C. be called the Mildred Rutherford Historical Museum in honor of the late Miss Mildred Lewis Rutherford, life historian of the division. It was voted that the president of the division be empowered to appoint a committee to work out plans for the building, which is to be erected on the campus of the University of Georgia. The building, which would cost not less than $100,000, according to the proposal, would house valuable historical records and works of the Confederacy. Another resolution established that July 16, the birthday of Miss Rutherford, be observed by the state division as well as the national organization. It was also voted that the Georgia division make some move to erect a suitable memorial for Miss Rutherford, each chapter contributing to the memorial fund.

Resolution Given. The resolution endorsing the Stone Mountain Memorial association, which was introduced by Mrs. R. W. Walden, of Augusta; Mrs. Caroline Holt McConnell, of Lithonia, and Mrs. Mildred V. Rhodes, of Athens, was as follows:

Be it resolved, by the Georgia division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, in annual convention assembled in Atlanta, October, 1928, as follows:

First: That we thank G. F. Willis, president of the Stone Mountain Memorial association, for his interesting address delivered to this convention, outlining his plans for resuming work on Stone Mountain in the near future and completing the mounted statues of Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee and "Stonewall" Jackson within 12 months.

Second: That we pledge him and the association of which he is president our support and cooperation, not by committing the division or the chapters thereof to any stated financial obligation, which he has not asked, but in the sense that we look forward eagerly to the completion of this magnificent monument to our Confederate forefathers.

Third: That the plan Mr. Willis has outlined to us at this convention, of giving the women of Georgia who are interested in the Stone Mountain memorial a definite opportunity to take part in it, by means of a "Stone Mountain Memorial Day," we approve and endorse and commend it to all women of Georgia who feel, individually and personally, a sense of pride and patriotic inspiration in this enterprise, whether they be members or non-members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Dublin Delegates Form Interesting Convention Figures

A group of prominent and attractive women from Dublin are attending the Georgia division, U. D. C., convention being held in Atlanta this week at St. Mark's Methodist church, among them being Mrs. Otis L. Chivers, who most efficiently edited the official U. D. C. page in The Constitution during July. She has been accorded many honors in cultural, social and educational work, having served on the Carnegie library board; is past president of Dublin P. T. A.; is a member of the twelfth congressional committee; and is first vice president of the Oconee chapter, U. D. C., which was awarded the Margaret Carter Hunter cup offered for the chapter recruiting the largest number of new members not on a percentage basis, and the Alice Barker cup for new members between the ages of 18 and 25 years.

These trophies being awarded at Wednesday's session. Mrs. Chivers is the mother of five children, four daughters, including Misses Ann, Clyde, Bessie and Jennie Chivers, while Otis Chivers, Jr., is her only son. Mrs. Izelle Bashinski, president of Oconee chapter, U. D. C., is another outstanding and brilliant delegate in attendance upon the convention, and is a state officer holding that of second vice president. She attended Lucy Cobb institute in Athens, was graduated from Cox college, and for many years has been a figure distinguished in the central section of Georgia. Mrs. Bashinski is second vice president of Dublin Woman's club; a member of the Georgia D. A. R. executive board, and former president of Dublin Music club. She has two sons, Horace and Isadore Bashinski, Jr., and an only daughter, Miss Helen McCall Bashinski, who bears her mother's maiden name. Completing the foursome of interesting women attending the convention are Mrs. Howard Parker, secretary of Oconee chapter, U. D. C., and a graduate of Woman's college in Montgomery, Ala., while Miss Margaret Maloney, one of the pages to the state president, Mrs. W. Trox Bankston, of Covington, was graduated from St. Mary's-in-the-Woods, near Indianapolis, Ind., and enjoys the benefits of travel and education.

Miss Clinkscales Weds Charles D. Gatlin.

A marriage of interest was that of Miss Eleanor Clinkscales, of St. Paul, Minn., more recently of Atlanta, to Charles D. Gatlin, of Atlanta, which was solemnized Sunday at 6:30 o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's uncle, the Rev. James Benjamin Green, of Decatur, Ga. Dr. Green performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few relatives and close friends of the couple. The bride was gowned in beige colored georgette and velvet, modeled with a long waist and full skirt. Her corsage bouquet was of brides roses and valley lilies. The bride is the daughter of E. H. Clinkscales, Sr., of St. Paul, Minn. Mr. Gatlin is the son of the late Charles C. Gatlin. He was educated in Atlanta and is now connected with the Dockstader Optical company, of Atlanta. The only out-of-town guest was Miss Eleanor MacGregor, of Greenville, S. C., the maternal aunt of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Durham Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Will Leonard Durham celebrated their silver wedding anniversary last Sunday at their home on Copeland avenue, S. W., the interesting celebration being in the form of a wedding ceremony, with Dr. W. H. Faust, pastor of Gordon Street Baptist church, performing the marriage service against a background of stately palms, ferns and pink dahlias. Miss Alma Gilbert sang "Love's Old Sweet Song," accompanied by Mrs. Arthur McCreary, pianist. Mendelssohn's wedding chorus was used as the processional and during the ceremony Mrs. McCreary played "To a Wild Rose." The maid of honor, Miss Myrtle Belle Durham, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Durham, wore a gown of shell pink taffeta made bouffant with a scarf of tulle caught at the waist with a rhinestone ornament striding around the neck and held in place with a shoulder corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Durham, the bride of 25 years ago, entered with the groom and was lovely in a model of midnight blue crepe combined with silver lace. Her shoulder bouquet was of sunburst roses and valley lilies. Mr. and Mrs. Durham entertained at an informal reception and the rooms were decorated with dahlias and autumn leaves. The dining table was overlaid with a lace cover and had as its center a lovely bride's cake, which was adorned with a miniature bride and groom. Unshaded pink candles burned in silver candlesticks and comports held pink and white mints. Receiving at the door were Miss Leatha Durham, Mrs. J. A. Benson and Mrs. R. N. Landers. Miss Inez Sargent, niece of the bride, kept the bride's book. Assisting in entertaining were Miss Marynet Lassiter, Miss Louise Hall, Miss Blanche

Johnson, Miss Grace Turner, Miss Marietta Faust, Miss Dorothy Whitehead and Miss Hilda Faust, all of whom are classmates of Miss Myrtle Belle Durham at Bessie Tift college.

Phi Pi's To Give Christmas Dance.

The Phi Pi club, of Atlanta, met Wednesday with Miss Caroline Cruikshank at her home in Ansley Park. Plans were made for the formal dance, to be given by the club, probably during the Christmas holidays, and at this time it was discussed what charity the club will sponsor. The officers of the club are Miss Louise Moore, president; Miss May Latimer, vice president; Miss Jaqueline Moore, secretary, and Miss Liza Tway, treasurer.

The Evening Session. The evening session was marked by the address of John A. Shibley on "A Bargain Broken." After presenting a full resume of the complicated situation during the civil war period, Mr. Shibley concluded by saying, "The south has no reason to be ashamed or afraid. In 1860 she believed in the integrity of the constitution and today she believes in the integrity of the constitution. In 1860 she believed that the provisions of the constitution should be respected."

"If this government is to live, if her institutions are to be perpetual, these principles, so sacred to the south, must be accepted and observed by the nation. The valor of her brave soldiers, the genius of her great leaders, the sacrifice of her noble women, have won the acclaim and admiration of the world. May the daughters of the Confederacy keep straight the record, that the truth of history may be handed down to our children and their children, as an inspiring and noble heritage."

A loving cup for the best reminiscence from a Confederate veteran, which was written by Mrs. L. D. T. Quinby, president of the Fulton chapter, was presented to the Fulton chapter.

Mrs. John Perdue, chairman of the Confederate Soldiers' home, presented a cup to the Fulton chapter as the chapter of the state division doing most for the Confederate Soldiers' home. The Decatur chapter was awarded the second prize.

The Oconee chapter, of Dublin, was awarded a framed portrait of General Lee as first prize for the chapter outside of Atlanta doing the most important work for the Soldiers' home. The picture was given by Major J. E. McAllister, superintendent of the home.

Historical Evening. Mrs. W. C. Verren, of Moultrie, at the night session Thursday, extended the invitation to hold the 1929 convention in Moultrie, which was accepted, and, as chairman of credentials, announced that 196 delegates have been registered for the convention held in Atlanta this year.

The observance of historical evening marked the Thursday evening program of the division, which was held at St. Mark's church. Chairmen, officers, and distinguished guests of the historical department of the Georgia division formed a picturesque pageant entering the church to the strains of a spirited march in costumes of the 60's. Mrs. H. H. Harris wore a hoop skirt model of rose taffeta. Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, Mrs. Herbert M. Franklin, of Tannville; Mrs. Oscar McKenzie, of Montezuma; Mrs. W. R. Bankston, of Covington; Mrs. W. S. Coleman, of Atlanta; Mrs. R. B. Broyles, of Birmingham, Ala.; and Mrs. J. A. Rountree, of Birmingham, were among the distinguished guests who wore anti-bellum hoop skirt dresses representing women of the sixties. Many wore the dresses of their great grandmothers. Mrs. Charles Tillman, of Quitman, wore white brocade featuring satin hoops. Presentation of service crosses, installation of new officers and a series of musical numbers, concluded the program. With the exception of a ride at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning to Stone Mountain the convention, closed Thursday night.

Memorial Group To Omit Meeting. The Ladies Memorial association will not meet until the fourth Friday in November, it having been decided to omit the October meeting on account of the convention of the U. D. C. in session.

THE NIGHTMARE

By GERALD MYGATT

SYNOPSIS

Patricia Shyne is being entertained in one of New York's night clubs by Fanning Edger. She is annoyed by the leering stare of the man. At the table with the Hawk are a blonde, coarse looking woman and a slight young man, who appears to be drunk. The head waiter calls young Edger away from his table on a pretext, and as soon as he is alone the Hawk approaches Patricia and tries to engage her in conversation. He is interrupted by a good looking young chap, who orders him back to his place. The newcomer introduces himself as Jimmy Kirklin. Patricia tells Kirklin that she thinks the hawk-nosed person had asked the head waiter to get rid of her suitor. A fight ensues and Fanning Edger walks in on it. He pays the head waiter to restore order. Patricia introduces Kirklin to him and then asks Fanning to take her home. A few minutes later, as Kirklin leaves the place with his companion, he is followed by a man on the street who appears to be drunk. The hawk-nosed person, known as Bart Stinson, after taking the blonde woman home, makes for his secret hide-out, and there goes over a number of old newspaper clippings dealing with the disappearance of the 13-year-old daughter of Robert La Verre, who offers a million dollars reward for the safe return of the girl. Stinson glances over the fact that the picture of Sylvia La Verre resembles the girl he saw in the saloon with Patricia. The next day, while Stinson, Patricia and Jimmy spend the afternoon together, and then Patricia takes the evening train to her home in Far Harbor. It is after Jimmy promises to come out to Far Harbor on Monday. Patricia goes to work on Monday at the end of the bus line on Monday and is bitterly disappointed when he doesn't appear.

But in the meantime Jimmy has followed the blonde woman, whom he had seen in conversation with the Hawk in the railroad station, from the hotel to a hotel or speakeasy, where she is joined by another man. From their conversation Jimmy feels that Patricia is in some sort of danger. He hires a car to take him to Far Harbor. He is followed there by a man who whom Jimmy had overheard talking to the blonde woman. The strange man and his friends are interested in her as a motion picture possibility.

INSTALLMENT XXXV. JIMMY REMEMBERS THE CLARK.

Jimmy Kirklin and Patricia had walked up the beach hand in hand, leaving Ebenezer Snuggles engaged in the ceremony of opening his hard won bottle of wine.

She had caught Jimmy's arm. "There's the dune—there. The big white one—see?"

At that precise moment Jimmy stopped short.

"O, my Lord!" he blurted out. His jaw dropped open, stayed so.

Patricia recoiled as though she had been slapped. Her eyes stared.

"I've just remembered something," Jimmy announced.

And so he had. He had remembered the hotel clerk, tied and bound and blanketed and gagged, lying helplessly in that locked upstairs bedroom of the Commerce hotel.

"There might be a fire," said Jimmy. "I never thought of that. Why, I'd be a murderer!"

Still Patricia stared at him. She had not the faintest idea what he was talking about. Her face was like a slab of chalk.

"I've got to go back," said Jimmy. "Right off, too. I suppose I'll be arrested."

Patricia gave a little moan. She said one word, or rather just managed to say it: "Please!" It was almost as if she had whispered it.

Then, of course, Jimmy looked at her and saw her expression. He caught her hand. He said, "You dear little kid, and then in a torrent of words he told her the story of what had happened at the Spearhead hotel. Slowly, little by little, she began to smile.

"I thought you'd stopped loving me," she gulped. "That—that was all I thought, Jimmy, truly."

This time he kissed her, held her, and she clung.

Suddenly she drew back. "Of course you've got to go," she informed him. "And I'm going with you. It's Bemis Blake, Adam's brother. We'll take Chet Colley's flivver."

Jimmy shook his head: told her he was going alone. There would be trouble, he added.

"That's why I'm going along, goosey. Bemis and I were in high school together. He'll be all right when he knows you did it for me. Why, I've got to go, Jimmy."

She turned to look at the high, white dune and shook her head sadly. She gave a little half-laugh. "Seems as if you and I are predestined not to get there, Jimmy. This is the second time we've started for it and something happened both times."

"We'll get there," he said stoutly. "Everything's happened now that can." But even if he gave this reassurance the unsettling suspicion seized upon Jimmy that everything had not yet happened that could.

Thus it was that they had come to the Commerce hotel at Spearhead, finding it a place of utter calm. Jimmy took down the key from its rack and together he and Patricia raced upstairs. They found young Mr. Blake as Jimmy had left him, tightly bound and tightly blanketed; perspiration streaming from his face. The clerk's eyes spat sparks.

Then, as Jimmy worked, Patricia began to talk. Somehow Mr. Blake was gradually mollified. He still glared at Jimmy, but that was all.

"If they're crooks," he suggested presently, his expression none too happy. "If they're crooks why don't you have 'em arrested? We got a constable—if you can find him."

"But I'm not sure," Jimmy explained.

"Huh! You were sure enough to do a dirty trick on me. If you're not sure why don't you find out? They're probably in their room, the whole kaboodle of them."

Jimmy rubbed his forehead. Then he said: "That's an idea. I'll try anything. I'll go in—let's see—I'll pretend I fall for their movie stuff. I'll be your manager. Pat—how's that? I'll go in and say I want to make a contract for you. Least I can do is size 'em up."

Patricia nodded and the clerk grinned. "Go ahead."

Said Jimmy: "You two go down to the car, will you? Have the engine running in case of trouble—or something. If I don't come down in 15 minutes—"

"Yeh," said Mr. Blake with satisfaction. "If you don't come down in 15 minutes I'll know somebody has handed you what I'd like to." He hesitated, smiled feebly. "Just the same, if you're not down in 20 minutes I'll go up and see what's what."

"O, I'll be down all right," said Jimmy. He walked the length of the hall, hesitated a moment when he thought he saw somebody sink into room 15, then marched ahead. Upon the door of room 17 he battered bravely. A voice said, "Come in," and he threw the door open.

"Won't you come in?" the woman in the green dress had asked. Conversation followed, conversation that had meant nothing because of the fact that it was so obviously fabricated on both sides. Eventually Jimmy had got away.

Now at last, leaning against the side of Chet Colley's flivver as it stood vibrating in front of the Commerce hotel, Jimmy was relating all that had happened. Patricia listened earnestly. Young Mr. Blake likewise listened, but with a fine show of pondering weighty matters.

Jimmy said: "I couldn't get a thing, except I'm sure they're not telling the truth. What their game is, what they're after I don't know. I can't even guess. But I'll bet my last nickel they're crooks—or worse."

"I think I sort of like the funny little man," said Patricia. "He doesn't seem like a crook."

"Haven't you got some girl friend, Pat?" he asked at length. "Some girl friend in some other town, that you could spend the night with or else maybe visit for three or four days?"

"But why she asked."

"I don't know, but I wish you would. You see I heard a lot of things. If they were talking about you—"

"But they couldn't have been," she affirmed.

"Maybe not, but if they were—"

"I tell you," said the clerk brightly. "I'm supposed to be off duty tonight, but I'll stay on. Glad to do it for you, Pat. If these folks stay in the hotel, all right. If they get out and are headin' toward Far Harbor, suppose I give you a ring. I'll stay up till midnight. That ought to hold 'em."

"O, no," said Patricia. "It's your night off, Bemis, and we couldn't let you do that. Besides, there's a full moon—and if you're still going with Clarence—"

The clerk reddened abruptly.

"Come to think of it," she went on slowly. "I don't think your idea is so bad, Jimmy. Suppose we go home for supper."

Said Jimmy: "Fine." Now he turned to the clerk. "Be sure you don't let them know we've gone," he warned.

His face changed abruptly, as did Patricia's. Jimmy, his back to the hotel, heard a step behind him. Then a hand fell upon his shoulder. Jimmy wheeled sharply to find himself looking down into a pale, smiling face.

"Well, if this isn't luck!" chirped the pallid little man. Always said I was full of luck. I'll just bet you people are heading for Far Harbor, which is just where I'm heading. Mind giving me a lift?"

Without waiting for an answer the little man vaulted into the back of the car.

Wonderful Prizes Waiting for Movietest Winners!

Notice to Entrants in The Constitution's $8,000.00 Movietest Contest:

You will be notified immediately should any subscription turned in by you be declined by The Atlanta Constitution. You will be given the opportunity to replace any unsatisfactory subscription, providing such substitution is made on or before Midnight, November 7, 1928.

It was on the day following the first announcement that The Constitution was going to present THE MOVIE TEST with a group of attractive prizes.

In the mail of THE MOVIE TEST Editor was found a letter. This letter was from a housewife, and part of that letter is quoted in the following:

"It goes without saying that you are going to give away some lovely prizes. No doubt you will have automobiles, and radios, and Victrolas and all sorts of beautiful prizes. But listen, Mr. Movietest Editor, HAVE YOU EVER STOPPED TO CONSIDER THAT MANY HOUSEWIVES SUCH AS MYSELF WOULD RATHER WIN SOMETHING PRACTICAL FOR THE HOME THAN AN AUTOMOBILE?"

"Why don't you offer a Kelvinator Electric Refrigerator? Thousands of women would love to have it. Thousands of us who have just been on the verge of buying it but stopped for any one of a dozen trivial reasons."

"You don't have to be afraid of giving away a Kelvinator because those of us who have been deciding upon buying an electrical refrigerator know that Kelvinator is the pioneer in its field, and that from its earliest days it has been dependable. I clearly understand it is much easier for you men who stay all day in offices to grow enthusiastic about an automobile or a musical instrument—but did you ever try to place a value on convenience, enjoyment and wholesomeness—on leisure hours created, or on improved quality and increased healthfulness of foods?"

"If you want to give a prize that will surely build good-will for your newspaper, give something that will last—something that will be as prized years from now as it is today. You might be interested in knowing that I have a friend whose Kelvinator is 12 years old, and it is running on, smoothly, quietly and economically after 12 years of service."

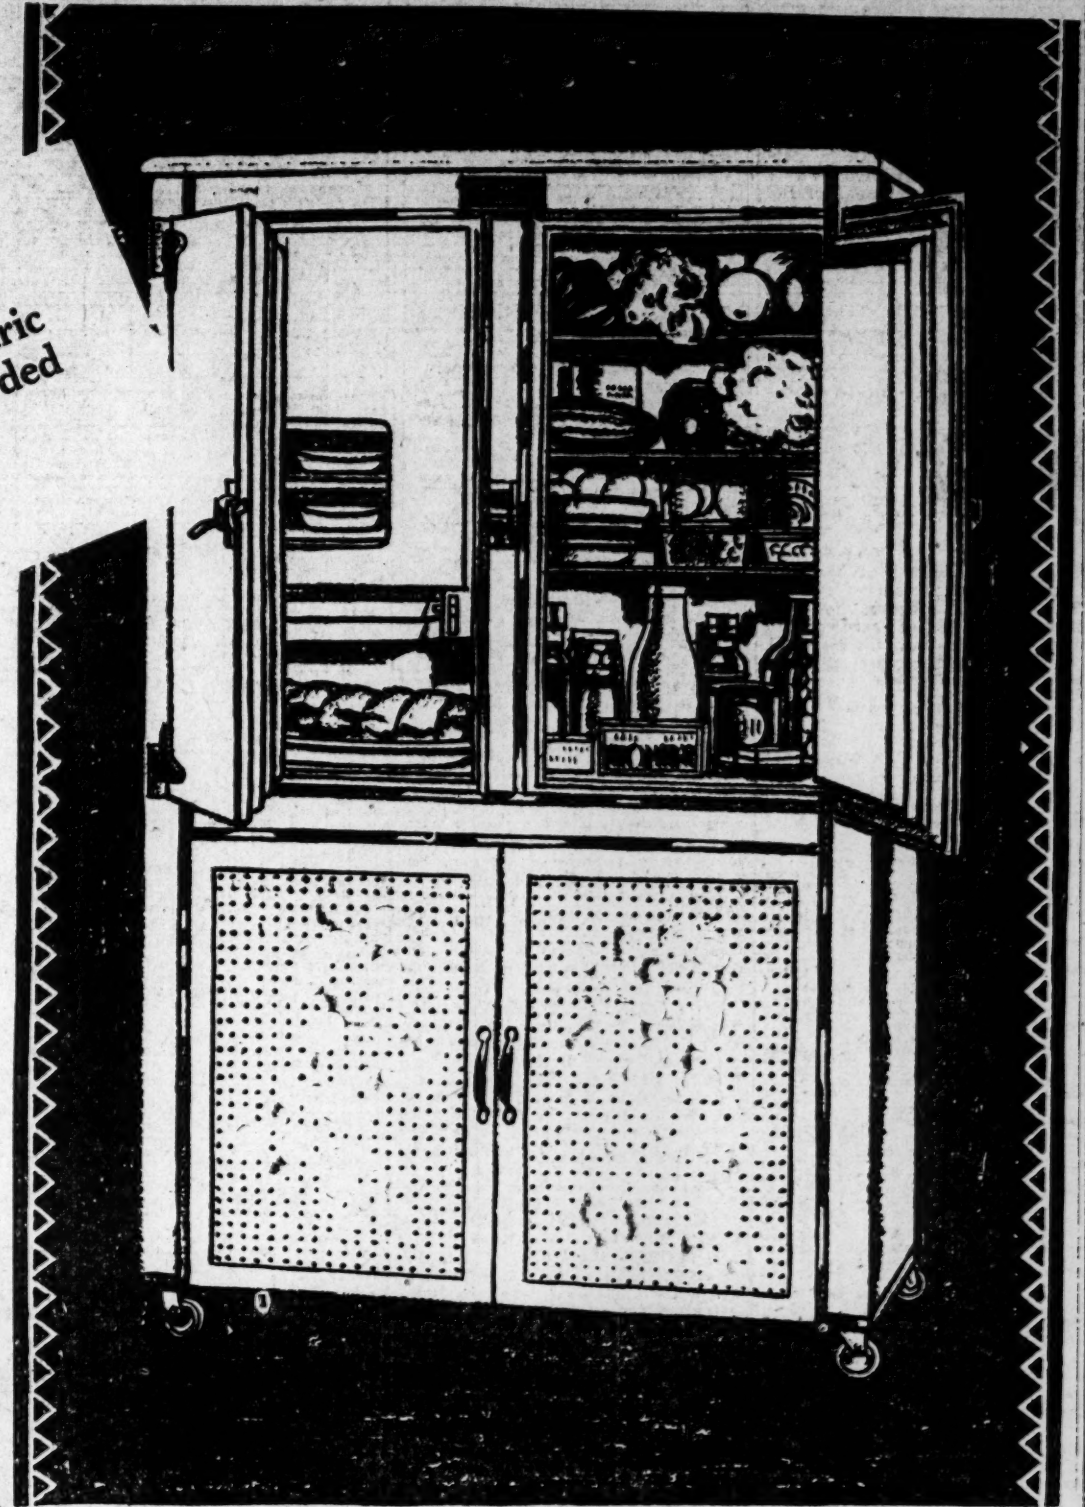

"Anyway, that's my idea of a REAL PRIZE, either for you to award or for some one to win. Do something NEW, Movietest Editor. Give a Kelvinator as a prize."

The Movietest Editor duly considered and investigated just what the writer of that letter had said. And as a result there are TWO KELVINATORS offered by The Constitution as prizes in THE MOVIE TEST.

Both of these Kelvinators are on exhibition at 492 Peachtree street, through courtesy of the Kelvinator Sales Corporation at Atlanta.

Gentlemen:— ATTENTION: MOVIE TEST EDITOR

We are pleased indeed that Willner's was selected by The Constitution as the local furrier to provide a fur coat in The Constitution's contest; not only because we are glad to be associated with your fascinating MOVIE TEST; but because once more there is evidence that "Willner's—the symbol of safety in furs" is far more than a slogan.

We are appreciative of the responsibility that you placed in us in asking that WE select the particular coat that is to be awarded.

The selection has been made. And here is a description of the fur coat that, as we understand it, will be the 6th prize in your PRIZE LIST, NO. 1:

AN ALL-NORTHERN SEAL COAT. SELF TRIMMED. MADE OF SELECTED NEW ZEALAND BUCK-SKINS, REINFORCED. A WARM, LUXURIOUS, RICH GARMENT THAT SHOULD GIVE FROM THREE TO FIVE SEASONS WEAR WITHOUT REPAIR. THIS COAT REPRESENTS THE WORKMANSHIP OF EXPERT CRAFTSMEN AND IS TOPPED OFF WITH A HEAVY SILK CREPE EMBROIDERED LINING.

We know you will like this coat. We are positive that the fortunate winner will be more than delighted with it, —and Willner's will be equally as happy.

Very truly yours,

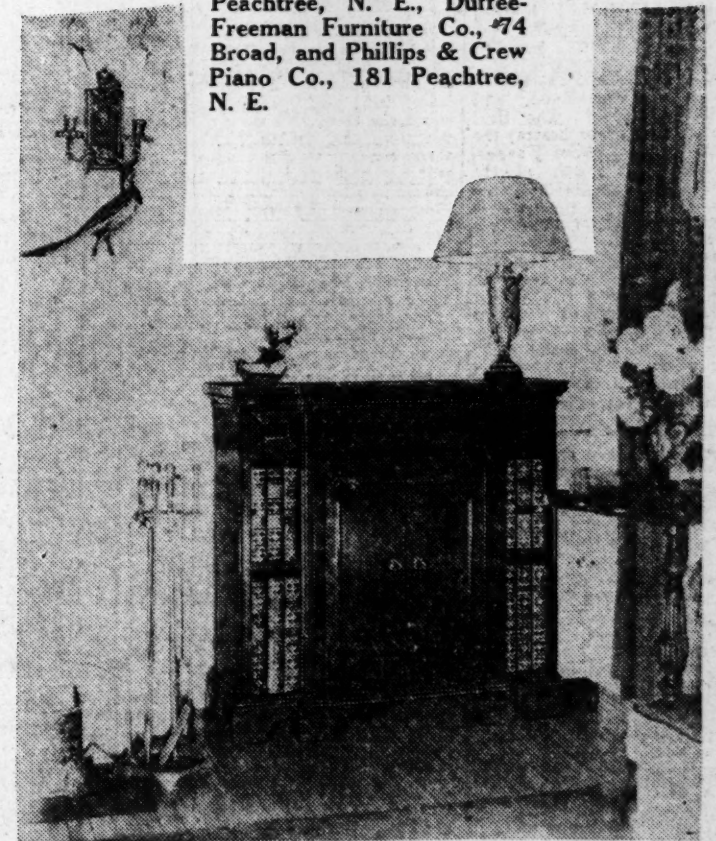

WILLNER'S.

3 Wonderful Orthophonic Victor Victrolas

Wonderful as are the automobiles and all the rest of the 31 prizes, no prizes in the list will bring more sheer happiness into the home than the three magnificent ORTHOPHONIC VICTOR VICTROLAS. There is really nothing that can compare with the joy of orthophonic music except the singing or playing of the artists themselves. This is literally true and is basically why The Atlanta Constitution selected THREE Orthophonic Victrolas as awards.

Kreisler—Elman—Heifetz. A violin, quivering with a thousand varied emotions that transcend words. Swiftly your surroundings vanish. You see a black Hungarian forest. YOU ARE AT THE CONCERT—IN YOUR OWN HOME. So realistic, so life-like, is reproduction through the Orthophonic Victrola that the artist seems to stand there before you. Whatever the season, this versatile instrument brings you and your friends the best of the world's music by the world's greatest artists—and as many encores as you wish.

BY JOHN P. BOUGHAN.

Associated Press Market Editor.

Chicago, October 25.—(AP)—Europe appeared today to be reaching out in earnest for corn from the United States. Transatlantic buying today of December and March deliveries of corn here was estimated at about 2,000,000 bushels. Meanwhile, seaboard purchases of corn, presumably for near-by export shipment, were said to have aggregated more than 1,000,000 bushels in the last 48 hours. Wheat prices were responsive to corn strength.

Closing quotations on corn future

delivered were unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 3-4 higher. Wheat finished today 3-4 up, oats varying from a shade decline to 1-3c back to a rise of 5c.

Predicted showers tonight for parts of the corn belt and consequent fears of rainy weather interfering with prompt movement of the crop, caused much today to stimulate speculative demand for corn. Stocks of corn actually on hand at terminal markets are so small that the trade is unusually dependent upon day-to-day receipts, and for this reason the character of weather prevailing is of more importance at present than would otherwise be the case. In this connection it was pointed out that primary arrivals of corn today, both new and old corn, totaled only 481,000 bushels, compared with 913,000 bushels a year ago.

Advances in price for corn in

Argentina were given considerable weight by some authorities in this connection to explain increased demand for corn from the United States. On the other hand, country offerings today of corn to arrive here were reported to be the heaviest witnessed on a single day for some time past. Furthermore, the increased rural offerings of new crop corn led to notable weakness in the cash corn trading basis, and cash prices here were 2c to 3c a bushel lower than a year ago.

Liverpool Stock Drops.

Upturns in the price of wheat here, largely a result of action of the Liverpool market, were also aided by relative firmness of wheat quotations at Liverpool. Reports at hand indicated that Liverpool stocks of wheat are diminishing, and that in the last few days considerable United States hard winter wheat for December shipment has been despatched to Liverpool. Oats trade was light, and prices were governed chiefly by other grain.

Provisions averaged lower, influenced by the fact that hog values are down to more than $4 a hundred weight in the last month.

Cash Grain.

PARTY LOYALTY HOLDS

M'MULLEN WITH G. O. P.

Agrees With Norris on Farms, Power; Will Stick to Republican Cause.

Lincoln, Neb., October 25.—(AP)—Declaring he would not follow Senator George W. Norris into the democratic camp, Governor Adam McMillen today reaffirmed his support of Herbert Hoover and announced the republican presidential nominee had assured him that, if elected, he contemplated calling a special session of congress for the sole purpose of taking up the agricultural question. Governor McMillen said Senator Norris' open declaration for Governor Al Smith would have much effect and would be beneficial to the democrats because the senator had the greatest following of any man in Nebraska. "In the main, I am one of his followers," he continued. "We agree on the agricultural and power questions. But I do not agree with him on doing away with parties, because I believe in government by parties. For that reason I will not follow him into the democratic camp."

Concerning Hoover's stand on agricultural equality, Governor McMillen declared: "I had a conference a few weeks ago with Mr. Hoover. I wanted to know whether he meant business about doing something for agriculture. For an hour we talked over the table alone. "He said he contemplates, if elected, calling a special session of congress for the sole purpose of taking up the agricultural question. He said that if a special session was not called it would be a year before the question could be taken up and another year before any kind of legislation could be put into operation. "There is quite a difference," the governor asserted, "between taking the agricultural question up before a special session of congress and a conference as Governor Smith proposes. Governor Smith would still be a private citizen when he called his conference, which would be powerless. If Governor Smith knows what he proposes to give the farmers he would not need a conference."

FATHER AND SON CALLED TO DOOR AND SHOT DOWN

Ablene, Texas, October 25.—(AP)—Alleged to have shot and killed Earle Hamilton, 17, and the youth's father, Dudley W. Hamilton, because the boy, who was to be a witness in a liquor case, refused to obey orders to "leave the country," Hamilton was being sought by west Texas officers today on charges of murder. Hamilton and his son were slain at their home in Preston last night after they had been called out of bed by Fritz, against whom young Hamilton was subpoenaed to testify on a liquor charge next Monday.

SENATOR JOHNSON DENIES HE WILL DESERT HOOVER

Fresno, Calif., October 25.—(AP)—United States Senator Johnson, son of California, today denied rumors that he would support Governor Alfred E. Smith, democratic candidate for president. "I had a conference with him," Johnson said, "and I am cognizant of the rumors which emanated largely from the east. "There is no truth in guesses in the east that I may declare for Governor Smith," Senator Johnson said just before leaving for Visalia to speak this afternoon. "Of course there is now as I have been during this campaign and as I shall continue to do, in behalf of Mr. Hoover's candidacy and expressing my own deep conviction upon the power trust and the Boulder dam project."

DRY, ALIEN ISSUES GRIP SOUTH, BORAH ASSERTS

D.x'e Due for Big Industrial Development, Says Senator.

Columbus, Ohio, October 25.—(AP)—Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, announced tonight that he had agreed to deliver three campaign speeches in the east. The senator is returning to Washington from a campaign tour in the south.

The three speeches will be at Baltimore on October 31, at Boston on November 2 and Utica, N. Y., on November 3. He also may start for North Carolina next Monday to deliver speeches at Asheville and Raleigh, N. C., next Tuesday and Wednesday if it is so desired by republican headquarters.

The Idaho senator expects to confer with Herbert Hoover shortly after his arrival in Washington tomorrow. He will present his views on the southern political situation to the republican presidential nominee.

Sees Kentucky "Safe."

Summing up his opening of the political outlook in the six southern and border states through which he has just campaigned, Senator Borah told newspapers that North Carolina, Tennessee and Florida are close states, "but I would not be surprised at all to see them in the Hoover column. "Kentucky is in the Hoover column," he added, "while Missouri is reasonably safe."

Finds Intense Interest.

"I have never known people more intensely interested in a campaign. Everybody recognizes that a condition exists that has not heretofore existed in the south. "Senator Borah declared that in his opinion the most discussed and most serious campaign questions in the south are immigration and prohibition although "there is a marked increase in sentiment in favor of the protective tariff system. "A prediction was made by the senator that the next quarter of a century will mark a most important industrial development of the south. "Declaring that he never had had a more agreeable and interesting experience than his recent campaign tour, Mr. Borah said interest was manifested not only in the audiences but in his personal contacts.

CANNON, CORNERED, DENIES HE SAID GLASS WAS POWER

Lynchburg, Va., October 25.—(AP)—In response to a direct wire from Senator Glass today asking if he stated at Bristol Wednesday night that Mr. Glass at the time was "in the hands of Olney Cannon," Bishop James Cannon, Jr., telegraphed to Senator Glass from Lynchburg. "The senator took cognizance of the statement attributed to him in newspaper reports. "In response to a direct wire from Senator Glass today asking if he stated at Bristol Wednesday night that Mr. Glass at the time was "in the hands of Olney Cannon," Bishop James Cannon, Jr., telegraphed to Senator Glass from Lynchburg. ## M. E. COOPER, 51, IS FOUND DEAD NEAR SUWANEE

Lawrenceville, Ga., October 25.—(Special)—M. E. Cooper, age 51, was found dead this afternoon by a negro who was passing where Mr. Cooper was staying near Suwanee. He was unmarried and was camping. Life he liked. He had not been seen since Tuesday morning.

It is said that his body was unharmed and he having been a sufferer of asthma it is thought he died during a severe attack. Mr. Cooper was a Spanish war veteran and was born and reared near Snellville, a son of the late Thomas Thomas J. Cooper, one of the county's wealthy planters and pioneer citizens of this section. He had many friends throughout the county.

He is survived by several brothers and sisters, C. C. Cooper, W. B. Cooper and Mrs. A. W. Webb, of Grayson; Mrs. Sidney Williams, Snellville; Mrs. N. S. Robinson, Lawrenceville; Mrs. N. Hyatt, Loganville; Mrs. Jake Chapp, Lithonia, and his stepmother, Mrs. Thomas Cooper, Grayson.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from natural causes. Funeral services will be held at Snellville Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, eastern time, from Snellville Baptist church.

PROSECUTOR TRAILS BIG BANK ACCOUNTS TO LEARN OWNERS

Philadelphia, October 25.—(AP)—District Attorney Monaghan continued his search today for the seemingly obliterated trail of a dozen or so millionaires whose bank account names he declares were fictitious, but whose fortunes were real.

Bankers were ordered to appear before the grand jury along with more private and detective agencies. "If I never do anything else during this investigation," Monaghan said today, "I shall find out whom the mysterious accounts actually belong. No bank official nor anyone else is going to stop me. The total of more than $10,000,000 in mystery accounts reflects the immense amount of money handled by the men—a comparatively small group—who systematically violated the bank laws. "The claim to know nothing about them."

SIR GEORGE WILKINS SAILS ON WHALER FOR DECEPTION ISLE

Montevideo, Uruguay, October 25.—(AP)—Sir George Hubert Wilkins today was sailing south on the whaler Hentoria for a new conquest of polar regions by airplane. The Australian airman and explorer, who last summer started the world by flying across north polar regions from Alaska to Spitzbergen, was headed for Deception Island. There he will establish a base for exploration by air of large spaces of the antarctic.

While these plans were uppermost in his mind he had under consideration the feasibility of future exploration in the region by submarine. He thought that trips under ice fields and ice bergs would be necessary and dangerous and pointed out that during the world war submarines were frequently navigated under ice in Scandinavian and British waters.

Such undersea exploration would not be undertaken for two years, he said, when he hoped the British government would come to his aid. He expected to return from the present expedition in March and then during the following season return to establish weather stations in south polar regions.

DOCTOR TO FACE TRIAL IN DEATH OF GIRL PATIENT

Keyser, W. Va., October 25.—(AP)—Dr. Otto Fisher and two co-defendants must go on trial Monday on indictments connected with the death of Miss Louie Muriel Beckone, of Harrisonburg, Va., as a result of a drug in circuit court here late yesterday.

Judge A. Jay Valentine overruled the demurrers filed by Dr. Fisher, Miss Louetta Whitehead, Harrisonburg, and Orville Liskey, of Harrisonburg, and set the cases for trial Monday. Miss Beckone was found dead in Dr. Fisher's office. Fisher's office and the investigation of her death led to arrest not only of the physician, a former Harrisonburg resident, who recently came here to his practice, and his nurse, but also of Liskey. An extra panel of 75 jurors was drawn for jury duty, and defendants, who plan to call about 60 witnesses, predicted the trial would last for a week or more.

Alleged Bootlegger Held in Rum Fight Slaying in Florida

Fort Lauderdale, Fla., October 25.—(AP)—Bill Bertolini, of Fort Lauderdale, said by officers to be known as a bootlegger, has been arrested in Miami in connection with the slaying of Pat Halferty in a rum battle on New river here last Sunday.

Officers said Bertolini was the alleged owner of the boat captured with a liquor cargo following the battle. He is a brother-in-law of "Two-Gun" Parry, of the coast guard, formerly located here and tried for murder in federal court in connection with the killing of a rum runner. Parry recently was transferred to the north because of alleged threats against him by rum runners.

Ends Life With Gun

Danville, Pa., October 25.—(AP)—Using a shotgun, the muzzle of which he placed to his head, Arthur Nigels, 57, long a resident here and owner of a large grove, killed himself today at his home. Despondency over illness was attributed as the cause for his act. The body was found by a son. Four sons and a daughter survive.

80 PER CENT OF ROADS FAVOR EXPRESS PLAN

Arrangements Proceed for Roads To Take Over Express Business.

New York, October 25.—(AP)—Eighty per cent of the interested railroads have assented to the plan for their taking over the express business. V. B. Storey, president of the Atchafalaya and Santa Fe railroad, announced today. Only 75 per cent is necessary for the plan to become operative.

Mr. Storey, who is chairman of the Association of Railway Executives' committee on uniform express contracts, said the committee had notified the railroad agents to proceed with their negotiations with the heads of the express companies.

Wall Street expects the railroads will execute the right accorded by their contracts to purchase the physical assets at the book value, less depreciation, which was $27,256,337 as of December 31, 1927. In such a case cash and securities of the express company would be distributed to its stockholders.

Mr. Storey, Wallace W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad; Patrick E. Crowley, president of the New York Central, and Carl R. Gray, of the Union Pacific, will act as agents for the railroads.
